INTRODUCTION:

My work in this book:

I have tried my best to keep the text of the hadeeth same as the version published by Beirut-Lebanon by Dar-Al Kutub Al-‘Elmeeyah: AHKAAMUL AHKAAM SHARHU ‘UMDATIL AHKAAM.

I have referenced every hadeeth completely. If the hadeeth is found in Sahih Al-Bukhari in more than one place then I have referenced it fully. The reason for doing this is because it is easy to understand the fiqh of the hadeeth. Moreover, I have given complete explanation to every hadeeth and all the verses and ahadeeth that I have used in my explanation are completely referenced. All the references used in this book are all from English translations and only few books whose English translations are not available or that I do not have are referenced from Arabic books. I do not have the English translation of Sunan At-Tirmith; similarly, I do not have English translation of Musnad of Imaam Ahmad ibn Hambal, therefore, their references are from the Arabic Books.

EXPLANATION OF ‘UMDATUL-AHKAAM

BOOK OF PURIFICATION

Significance of Purification in Islam:

Islam laid a great emphasis on cleanliness of body along with cleanliness of mind because the former leads to the latter. The Glorious Qur’aan stressed a great emphasis on cleanliness and purification. Its significance is mentioned in the Glorious Qur’aan: “In it there are men who like to remain pure. Verily Allaah loves the pure ones”. At-Tuawbah: 9: 108.

“O you who believe! When you rise up to prayer, wash your faces and your hands…”

Purification leads one the Paradise:

The Prayer is compulsory upon every Muslim, man or a woman who reached the stage of puberty. The one, who does not offer five daily prayers after reaching the stage of puberty, is considered disbeliever according to the majority of the jurists and Imaams. Most naturally, the one who does not offer five daily prayers will never take of purity of his body, cloth, or place. Thus such person will be put to the Hell-Fire. Most naturally, the one who offers five daily prayers will be very careful about the purity of his body, cloth, and place. Thus, such person will most certainly go to the Paradise.

The Prophet has also stressed great emphasis on purification and cleanliness of the body, clothes, and place. Purification of the body, cloth, and place is one the main conditions for validity of the Prayer. The Prayer in one of the five pillars of Islam, and it is compulsory to take bath before prayer in case of impurities, and wash of all exposed bodily limbs before each prayer. Islam emphasizes on cleanliness that the Prophet said that no prayer is accepted without purification of bodily impurities, and that cleanliness is half of faith and that it is the door to Paradise.

The Prophet ( ﷺ) said: Cleanliness is half of faith”\(^1\)

The object is to keep oneself pure externally and internally. External purity leads to internal purity. One can only be healthy if he regularly keeps himself clean. Hence, to pray five times a day one has to perform ablution to offer the prayer. This is one of best way to keep oneself pure and clean.

HADEETH ONE

1- Narrated ‘Umar (bin Al-Khattab): Allaah’s Messenger ( ﷺ) said, “The reward of deeds depends upon the intention and every person will get the reward according to what he has intended. So whoever emigrated for Allaah and His Messenger ( ﷺ) then his emigration was for Allaah ( ﷺ) and His Apostle ( ﷺ). And whoever emigrated for worldly benefits or for a woman to marry, his emigration was what he emigrated for.”\(^2\)

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETH: (1):

The Prophet ( ﷺ) said this on the occasion of someone’s emigration from Makkah to Madeenah not for the sake of the Islamic Cause but to marry a woman who was called Ummul Qays, who had stipulated that he should emigrate if he wanted to marry her. Hence, he did migrate to Madeenah, and was titled emigrant of Ummul Qays because he married her.

This hadith forms the sum and substance of the teaching of Islam. It is one of the fundamental principles of law in all ages. This hadith implies a general principle, i.e. one is rewarded for his deeds according to his real intentions not according to his actual deeds, which might be good in them but motivated, by an ill intention. The rewards for the Emigrants differ according to their intentions, i.e. whether they emigrated for worldly benefits or for the Pleasure of Allaah and His Messenger. The acceptance of an action for reward by Allaah depends on the nature of an intention for which an action is done. If the intention working behind and action is sincere and the action is done for seeking the countenance of Allaah, the action is accepted and rewarded by Allaah. Contrary to it, if the motive behind an action is to gain some worldly benefits or earn a good name in the world and there is no bit of sincerity in seeking the pleasures of Allaah, then the action will have no worth and weight in the Hereafter. Instead, the man will be punished for such action, as it is not based on good intention. In the Hereafter, everyone will be judged according to his intentions.

Significance of sincere intention in the life:

The main object of the life of a Muslim, from the beginning to the end is to achieve the pleasure of Allaah. All his energies should, therefore, be directed to the achievement of this single goal. The deed, however noble it may superficially appear, or task, however great and useful it may seem to the people, has no value in Islam if it is not done or undertaken purely for the love of Allaah. The work done for other means and ends, besides seeking the pleasure of Allaah, is valueless in Islam.

Unfortunately however, form has been more important now a day than spirit, and religion has now become unimportant thing in life of the human beings. This hadeeth is considered to be one of the great principles of the Divine Faith. It purifies the heart of a man from all kinds of impurities, e.g. mannerism, showing off, ignoble pursuits of life, love for wealth, power, pride, and vanity, and makes him a silent, honest and untiring worker in the cause of Allaah, absolutely free from the love of low desires. This hadeeth also solves one of the problems of ethics pertaining to the relationship of ends and means.

Herein the Messenger of Allaah clearly told us that for the achievement of the good ends, it is essential that the means should also be good and above all the intention for which those means are to be employed should also be good. The golden lock is opened with golden key. It is with pious intention one should pursue noble ends and one should achieve noble goals. If the intention is not noble, the end is bound to be ignoble, though it may not appear to be so to the superficial observer.

Sincere intention and worship:

According to all jurists and Imaams that sincere intention (NEEYAH) is a condition precedent to the validity of an action, and an action without Neeyah is void. All kind of worship like, Prayer, Fasting, Pilgrimage, and Zakaat will be accepted or rejected based on the intention. Allaah will accept these acts of worship only when it is carried out purely to please Him alone. One must have sincere intention before carrying out any act of worship. The Prophet has not specified any particular words of expression while making intention (neeyah). Therefore, it is bid’ah (innovation in the religion) to utter words while making neeyah.

Bid ‘ah or Innovation in Islam:

The Messenger of Allaah has said very serious statement regarding the innovation in the religion. He said:

“The best word is the Book of Allaah and the best way is that of Muhammad ( ). The worst deed is innovation and each innovation is a deviation from Islam.”

The above hadeeth is very clear that nothing can be better than the Glorious Qur’aan and the Sunnah of the Prophet ( ). It is also very clear that innovation in the religion is the worst of deeds, and it will deviate an innovator from Islam. He further said in another hadeeth:

“Every deviation from Islam leads to Hell-fire.”

It is clear from the above statement that innovation in the religion will lead an innovator to the Hell-Fire. Further, it is mentioned in the hadeeth that the innovator’s deeds are not accepted. The Messenger of Allaah did not considered him amongst Muslims.

Aayshah has reported another hadeeth saying that the Messenger of Allaah said:

“Whoever invents something in our faith which does not originally exist, has nothing to do with us.”

Imaam Muslim has recorded the above hadeeth in his book SAHIH MUSLIM (Eng.): Kitaab Al-Aqdeeyah (The Book Pertaining to Judicial Decisions): vol. 3, p. 931, nos. 4266-7.

The innovator in the above hadeeth is not considered amongst Muslims.

‘Aayshah reported that the Prophet ( ) said:

“Whoever does an act which is not in agreement with our faith, such an act is rejected.”

peacemaking or reconciliation): Chapter: (5): If some people are reconciled on illegal basis, their reconciliation is rejected: vol. 3, p. 535, no. 861.

‘Irbaad ibn Saariyah reported that the Prophet ( ) said:

“Whoever survives me would observe many differences. However, you should follow my sunnah and that of my rightly guided caliphs. Adhere to it firmly. Beware! Avoid innovation, for each innovation is a deviation from Islam.”

Sincere intention and worldly actions:

Any worldly action like, sleeping, eating food, walking, etc. if done with the intention to seek Allaah’s pleasure and done according to the correct teaching of the Prophet, then such act becomes act of worship and hence will get reward from Allaah. All kind of good done to the relatives or other men or women or any act towards progress of Islam, such act is considered as a religious act.

HADEETH TWO

2- Narrated Aboo Hurayrah: The Prophet ( ) said, “Allaah does not accept prayer of anyone of you if he does Hadth (passes wind) till he performs the ablution (anew).”

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETH: (2):

It is very clear that Allaah does not accept the prayer offered without an ablution. Ablution is compulsory for the prayer. According to all the jurists and Imaams the prayer is invalid if it is offered without an ablution or offered without Tayammum in case if water is not available. It is same with all kind of prayers, whether it is obligatory prayer or supererogatory prayer.

Is it necessary to perform ablution for recitation of the Glorious Qur’aan?

There is no authentic hadeeth that has this statement in which it is said that ablution is must for recitation of the Glorious Qur’aan. Therefore, the prostration on account of recitation outside the prayer can be made without ablution. The ablution is only required for the prayer, hence during the prayer, if one comes across the verse that has prostration than the ablution which was made for the prayer is enough even for this prostration. Similarly, prostration on account of thanksgiving does not require ablution. If someone says against what I said than he must produce the authentic hadeeth.

The prayer will be considered invalid if the ablution breaks before finishing the prayer, just before the salutation:

According to some people the prayer will be considered valid if the ablution breaks just before the salutation, in the tashahhud. There evidence is the following hadeeth:

‘Abdullah ibn ‘Amr reported that the Apostle of Allaah as saying:

“When the Imaam completes the prayer and sits for reciting tashahhud and then becomes defiled i.e. his ablution becomes void before he speaks to one, his prayer becomes complete. And those who pray behind him also complete the prayer.”

REFERENCE: (2):

Imaam Al-Bukhaaree has mentioned this hadeeth in two difference places in his book SAHIH AL BUKHARI: see:

A. Kitaab Al-Wudoo (The Book of Ablution): chapter: (2): No prayer is accepted without ablution (i.e. to remove, the small hadath by ablution or the big hadath by taking bath): vol. 1, p. 101, no. 137.

Imaam Muslim has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SAHIH MUSLIM: Book of Purification: Chapter: (94): Purification is Essential for Prayer: vol. 1, p. 149, no. 435.

Imaam Ahmad Ibn Hambal has collected it in his MUSNAD.
EXPLANATION OF ‘UMDATUL-AHKAAM

Reference:
Imaam At-Tirmithee has collected the hadeeth in his SUNAN AT-TIRMITHEE: Kitaab As-Salah: chapter: what to do if a person breaks his ablution in the tashahhud. According to him this narration is weak due to its weak chain of narrators, Imaam Al-Albaanee has collected this hadeeth in his books DA’EEF SUNAN AT-TIRMITHEE: pp. 45-6, no. 63-409, and DA’EEF SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD: pp. 58-9, no. 122-617. Also see the footnote of SUNAN ABU DAWUD (Eng. Trans.): vol. 1, pp. 162-3, no. 617, footnote: 275.

Al-Khattabi said: This is a weak tradition. The experts of hadeeth have criticized some of its narrators. This also contradicts all those sound traditions that indicate that recitation of tashahhud and the utterance of salutation are necessary for prayer. None of the jurists has followed this tradition in its literal sense. Even the Hanafis holds that it is necessary to sit after the last prostration as long as one recites tashahhud. ‘AWNUL M’ABOOD: vol. 2, pp. 228-9, no. 613.

No one holds that the prayer is complete immediately after the completion of the last prostration. At-Tirmithee also criticized the chain of this tradition. The prayer said to be incomplete if it is finished before the Tasleem (salutation). The following hadeeth is clear evidence that the prayer starts with Takbeer and ends with Tasleem. ‘Aalaaee reported the Prophet as saying:

‘Aaishah reported the Prophet as saying: “When any one of you becomes defiled during prayer, he should hold his nose and then turn away.”

Reference:
Imaam Aboo Daawood has collected it in his SUNAN ABU DAWUD (Eng): vol. 1, p. 287, no. 1109 and Ash Shaykh Al-Albaanee has sorted it out in his SAHEEH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD: vol. 1, p. 207, no. 985-1114.

‘Alee Ibn Talq reported the Apostle of Allaah as saying: “When any of you breaks his ablution during prayer, he must withdraw, renew his ablution, and repeat the prayer.”

Reference:
Imaam Abu Dawud has collected the above hadeeth in his SUNAN ABU DAWUD (Eng.): vol. 1, p. 50, no. 205. According to Shamsul Haqq ‘Aageebaaee in ‘AWNUL M’ABOOD: vol. 1, pp. 242-3, no. 202, that this hadeeth is authentic.

CONCLUSION:

It is very clear from the above hadeeth that the prayer starts with the takbeer and it ends with tasleem. This is known as complete prayer otherwise if the prayer is stopped in between due to any reason it will be considered as incomplete prayer.

What to do if the ablution breaks during the prayer:

If one breaks his ablution during congregational prayer one should hold one’s nose and withdraw. He must renew his ablution and start his prayer from the very beginning. This is done so that the people will understand that the man has become defiled. They may think that his nose is bleeding and therefore, they will let him go. This is one of the best teachings of Islam, that this way one can hide ones defects without making it common to the public. It is not to be considered as a lie or showing off instead it is a good example of good behaviour and best way to maintain peace and order in the mosque. There are hadeeths by which one can easily understand the above argument.

‘Aaishah reported the Prophet as saying: “When any one of you becomes defiled during prayer, he should hold his nose and then turn away.”

Reference:
Imaam Aboo Daawood has collected it in his SUNAN ABU DAWUD (Eng): vol. 1, p. 287, no. 1109 and Ash Shaykh Al-Albaanee has sorted it out in his SAHEEH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD: vol. 1, p. 207, no. 985-1114.

‘Alee Ibn Talq reported the Apostle of Allaah as saying: “When any of you breaks his ablution during prayer, he must withdraw, renew his ablution, and repeat the prayer.”

Reference:
Imaam Abu Dawud has collected the above hadeeth in his SUNAN ABU DAWUD (Eng.): vol. 1, p. 50, no. 205. According to Shamsul Haqq ‘Aageebaaee in ‘AWNUL M’ABOOD: vol. 1, pp. 242-3, no. 202, that this hadeeth is authentic.
One must restart his prayer from very beginning if his ablution was defiled during the prayer and should not restart from where he has left his prayer. According to Shamsul Haqq the author of ‘AWNUL M’ABOOD the hadeeth of ‘Alee ibn Talq is stronger than the hadeeth of ‘Aayshah in which it is mentioned that the Prophet has said that one must restart his prayer from where he has left due to breaking of the ablution during prayer. It is weak and no one among the scholars has said that it is authentic. The hadeeth is as followed:

‘Aayshah reported that the Prophet said, “He who suffers from vomiting or nose-bleed or qals or emotional urethral discharge, should withdraw the prayer and perform ablution and then should restart his prayer from the same position as he left without talking to anybody during this time”.

QALS: it means emission of food or drink from the stomach irrespective of the fact whether a man casts this undigested substance out or reverts it to his stomach.

Reference:
According to Az-Zawaid, its chain of narrators is weak. Ismaa’eel ibn ‘Ayyaash is a weak narrator. His hadeeth is weak. Ash Shaykh Al-Albaanee has collected in his DA’EEF SUNAN IBN MAAJAH: p.89, no. 252-1221 and see its English translation in SUNAN IBN-I-MAJAH: vol. 2, p. 223, no. 1221.

CONCLUSION:
One must restart his prayer from the very beginning; if he has stopped his prayer somewhere in between due to any reason.

HADEETH THREE:

Imaam Muslim has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SAHIH MUSLIM: (Eng.): 1/154/468.

Imaam An-Nasaaee has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SUNAN NASSA’I: (Eng.): 1/178/112

Imaam Aboo Daawood has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SUNAN ABU DAWUD: (Eng.): 1/25-6/97.

Imaam Ibn Maajah has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SUNAN IBN-I-MAJAH: (Eng.): 1/248/450.

Aboo Hurayrah:
Imaam Al-Bukhaaree has collected the hadeeth of Aboo Hurayrah in his book SAHIH AL BUKHARI: (Eng.): 1/116/166.

Imaam Muslim has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SAHIH MUSLIM: (Eng.): 1/155/471

Imaam An-Nasaaee has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SUNAN NASSA’I: (Eng.): 1/178/111

Imaam Ibn Maajah has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SUNAN IBN-I-MAJAH: (Eng.): 1/249/453.

‘Aayshah:
Imaam Muslim has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SAHIH MUSLIM: (Eng.): 1/154/464

Imaam Ibn Maajah has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SUNAN IBN-I-MAJAH: (Eng.): 1/248/451

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETH: (3):

The above statement is from the complete hadeeth mentioned in SAHIH MUSLIM in which the story goes like this that ‘Abdullaah ibn ‘Amr reports: We returned from Makkah with the Messenger of Allaah and when we came to some water on the way, some of the people were in hurry at the time of the afternoon prayer and performed ablution hurriedly; and when we reached them, their heels were dry, no water had touched them. The Prophet said: “May Allaah burn the heels in the Hell-Fire. Perform your ablution in full.”

The above hadeeth is very important. It explains that one should perform the ablution very carefully. It is very important that one must wash all parts of the body, which are required to be washed during ablution completely, and nothing should be left out unwashed. In this statement it refers to heels only but the hadeeth should be considered common to all the parts of the body while carrying out the ablution.
THE FEET SHOULD BE WASHED WHILE PERFORMING ABLUTION:

As it is known that many anti-Islamic sects say that washing the feet is not necessary, wiping over them is enough. This opinion is rejected in Islam. The above hadith is a strong evidence to prove it wrong. The Prophet never wiped over his naked feet while performing an ablution. Therefore, there should be some evidences either from Glorious Qur'an or hadith or act or opinion of any companion of the Messenger of Allah, to say that wiping over the feet is enough. In fact there is not a single authentic evidence to prove what they say. Merely, by wrong interpretation of any verse of the Glorious Qur'an does not make lawful thing unlawful and unlawful thing lawful. Halal (lawful) and haram (unlawful) are declared if there is clear proof from The Glorious Qur'an or authentic hadith or interpretation of any Companion of the Messenger of Allah or any matter agreed upon by the Majority of the Scholars of Ummah.

ALL THE REQUIRED PARTS OF THE BODY SHOULD BE WASHED COMPLETELY:

While performing ablution one must washed all the required parts of the body completely otherwise the ablution will be invalid. If a portion like the size of a nail is left out unwashed then his ablution is invalid and he has to perform his ablution again properly.

Jaabir reported: ‘Umar ibn Khattaab said that a person performed ablution and left a small part equal to the space of a nail (unwashed). The Apostle of Allah saw that and said: Go back and perform ablution well. He then went back (performed ablution well) and offered the prayer.

Reference:
Imaam Muslim has collected this in his book SAHIH MUSLIM: (Eng.): 1/155/474.

Anas reported: A person came to the Messenger of Allah. He performed ablution and left a small part equal to the space of a nail upon his foot. The Messenger of Allah said to him: Go back and perform ablution well. and then blow it out and whoever cleans his private parts with stones should do so with odd numbers. And whoever wakes up from his sleep should wash his hands before putting them in the water for ablution, because nobody knows where his hands were during sleep.”

In the hadeeth collected by Imaam Muslim: that the Messenger of Allaah ( ) said: “When anyone amongst you (performs ablution) he must snuff his nostrils with water and then clean them.”

REFERENCE: (4):
Imaam Al-Bukhaaree has collected this hadeeth in two different places in his book SAHIH AL BUKHARI (Eng.) 1/114/162 and 163, with different wordings.
Imaam Muslim has collected it in his book SAHIH MUSLIM: (Eng.) 1/153/458-462, with different wordings.
Imaam Aboo Daawood has collected this hadeeth in two different places in his book SUNAN ABU DAWUD: (Eng.): 1/27/103 and 105.

Important notes on the hadeeth:
The wordings of the hadeeth as it is mentioned in the version of ‘Umdatul Ahkaam which I have is not matching with any hadeeth of SAHIH AL BUKHARI or SAHIH MUSLIM. I have put the different words which match the hadeeth of Al-Bukhaaree and Muslim in the brackets.

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETH: (4): In the above hadeeth the Messenger of Allaah has mentioned three important issues; (1): The Messenger of Allaah has commanded us to put water in the nose and asked us to blow it out while performing the ablution.
(2): The Messenger of Allaah has ordered to use odd numbers of stones while cleaning our private part.
(3): The Messenger of Allaah has ordered us to wash our hands before putting in to the vessel when get up from our sleep.

The principle in Islam:
It is agreed upon by the majority of the scholars of Islam that any verse of the Glorious Qur’aan or any hadeeth of the Messenger of Allaah has a statement in which an ordered is given then that issue becomes compulsory to follow otherwise the denier of such order is considered as big sinner and will deserve severe punishment, if sincere repentance is not made. Such obligatory issue can become non-obligatory or non-compulsory if any other verse or other hadeeth is found in which the same issue stated in another form and the order is not is given in it. I will give an example to make it more clear; the Messenger of Allaah has ordered in one hadeeth saying that: “the female should not wash with the water left over by the male, and the male should not wash with the water left over by the female, but both of them can wash with it together at the same time”.

Reference:
Imaam Aboo Daawood has collected it in his book SUNAN ABU DAWUD (Eng.): 1/21/81. Ash Shaykh Al-Albaanee has collected it in his SAHEEH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD (Arb.): 1/18/81-74.

It is very clear from the above hadeeth that the water left over by the male or the female is not allowed to use for bath. It is prohibited for both the male and the female to use the water left over. In fact, it is not prohibited to use the water left over by any of them because the Prophet of Allaah himself has washed himself with the water left over by his wife.

(1): Ibn Abbaas reported that the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) took a bath with the water left over by Maymoonah

Reference:
Imaam Muslim has collected this hadeeth in his book SAHIH MUSLIM (Eng.): 1/126/632.

(2): Ibn Abbaas reported: One of the wives of the Prophet took a bath from a large bowl. The Prophet wanted to perform ablution or take a bath from the water left over. She said to him: O Prophet of Allaah, verily I was sexually defiled. The Prophet said: “Water is not defiled.”

Reference:
Imaam Aboo Daawood has collected the above hadeeth in his book SUNAN ABU DAWUD (Eng): 1/17/68. Imaam Al-Albaanee has collected it in his SAHEEH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD (Arb): 1/16/61-68.

The above hadeeth shows that the association of water, garment, and earth with a person who is sexually defiled does not defile them. Further, the water left over after bath in the vessel can be used for purification.

Therefore, based on the above principle all the above three issues are in the form command and hence they become obligatory.

Conclusion:
1. Every Muslim must wash his/hers nose and mouth while performing ablution otherwise the ablution will not be valid.
2. Every Muslim must use odd numbers of stones preferably three while cleaning the private part.
3. Every Muslim must wash his/her hands before putting into the vessel after getting up from the sleep.

The obligatory parts of the ablution:

If the ablution is not performed according to the teaching of Islam then it is not valid. It is should be according to the ablution of the Messenger of Allaah (). It is clearly mentioned in the hadeeth that any deed or act of worship will be rejected if it is not according to the teaching of the Messenger of Allaah. Narrated by Aayshah: Allah's Apostle said, “If somebody innovates something which is not in harmony with the principles of our religion, that thing is rejected.”

Imaam Al-Bukhaaree has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SAHIH AL BUKHARI; (Eng.): Kitaab As-Sulh(The book of peacemaking or reconciliation): Chapter: (5): If some people are reconciled on illegal basis, their reconciliation is rejected: vol. 3, p. 535, no. 861.

“Whoever invents something in our faith which does not originally exist, has nothing to do with us.”

CONCLUSION:
It is clearly understood from the above two narrations that any act of worship will be considered valid only if it is from the authentic hadeeth and it will be accepted only if it is according the teaching of the Messenger of Allaah otherwise it will be rejected. May Allaah guide us to the correct Path and allow us to follow His Messenger sincerely. Aameen.

But according to some scholars it is not necessary to wash the nose while performing the ablution. There evidence is the verse in Sooratul Maidah: ch: 5, v. 6.

“O you who believe, when you rise for prayer, wash your faces and your hands up to the elbows and lightly rub your heads and (wash) your feet up to the ankles....”

5- Narrated Aboo Hurayrah: Allaah’s Messenger ( ) said, “You should not pass urine in stagnant water which is not flowing then (you may need to) wash in it.”
Aboo Hurayrah reported the Messenger of Allaah ( ) saying: “None of you must wash in standing water when he is in a state of Junub.”
And Aboo Hurayrah was asked how it was to be done; he said: It was to be taken out in handfuls.

5- 239 عن أبي هريرة أن رضوان الله صلى الله عليه وسلم قال: ((لا يُبول أحنك في الماء الذي لا يجري ثم يغسل فيه)). ولمسلم: 426 ((( لا يغسل أحنك في الماء الذي لا يجري )); فقال كيف يفعل يا أبا هريرة قال بتناوله تناولا).

Imaam Aboo Daawood has collected this hadeeth in his book SUNAN ABU DAWUD: vol. 1, pp. 17-18, nos. 69 and 70.
Imaam Ibn Maajah has collected this hadeeth in his book SUNAN IBN-I-MAJAH: vol. 1, p. 196, no. 344.
Imaam Ahmad Ibn Hambal has collected this hadeeth in his book MUSNAD IMAAM AHMAD.

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETH: (5):

Water is very essential in the life. It is used for ablution, washing and drinking purposes. Hence, water should be kept clean from all kinds of impurities. Putting any impurities into it should not spoil especially water, which is in standing form and in the stagnant form. Special care must be taken for such water because it does not move from one place to another and any impurity added to it would not be washed away, but it will remain in it. Gradually, it will start smelling and will be spoiled and will be of no use.

The above hadeeth is very clear that passing the urine in stagnant water is prohibited. Similarly, taking bath in it is also prohibited while a person is in the state of Janaabah. Al-Janaabah means a state in which a person (a man or a woman) had sexual intercourse or had seminal discharge in dream. There are two other states where a woman becomes impure, i.e. when she is in the menses or in the bleeding process after the delivery of the child. A Muslim in such a state is not allowed to pray or do other kinds of worships unless and until he performs Ghusl (bath) or do Tayammum. The scholars of Hadeeth are of the opinion that it is not totally forbidden, but it is to be discouraged especially when the water is not in the lake, pond, or the ocean, but in the well or any other small tank or tub.

The hadeeth is very clear that it is prohibited to pass the urine or take bath in it. Considering, the importance of public property, the Prophet has forbidden urinating in stagnant water and has forbidden washing in such water. There are other hadeeth in which the Prophet has forbidden to perform ablution in it. One can take water from it and then take bath standing away from it so that the used water should not go back to it again. As answered by Aboo Hurayrah, when he was asked how it was to be done, he said: “it was to be taken out in handfuls.”

One must avoid taking bath or passing urine in such water even if it is a big lake, or a pond, or the ocean, or any big or small well or tank, because gradually, it will be spoiled and will become impure and harmful to use. Although, some scholars say that it is permissible to do so, but one must think for the long time. As far as the purity of water is concerned then it is agreed by the scholars of Ummah that water does not become impure if the impurity has fallen into it unless its colour, or odour or taste changes due to that impurity. But one must realize that if stagnant water is in the form of a big lake and the people keep on washing into it then gradually its taste or colour or smell will definitely, change or sometimes all the qualities will change and it will become dirty and filthy and will become harmful to use. But if the water is taken from it and used for washing purpose away from it then it will last forever and will serve the purpose for the society in great way. We must respect the opinion of the major scholars but we must also understand that the Prophet would never stop us from anything that is of any benefit to us. Rather, he would only stop us from doing anything that will harm our society or us.

One must not think that the prohibition is only for the stagnant water and not for the flowing water or river. It is not desirable to pass the urine or any filthy thing even in the flowing water, because this water when it flows from one place to another then the filth will be carried along with it and it will be transferred there. Therefore, it is very important that one must consider the feelings of every person and avoid harming others in any way. He/she must like the same for others, which he/she likes for himself/herself. As the Prophet has mentioned in the hadeeth:

Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, "None of you will have faith till he wishes for his (Muslim) brother what he likes for himself."

Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Amr: The Prophet said, “A Muslim is the one who avoids harming Muslims with his tongue and hands...”

Conclusion:
Islam prohibits damaging of any public property. It teaches us to have peace and calm in the society. It teaches us to preserve natural resources. Water is one of the most important natural resources gifted by Allaah. Therefore, we must make the best use of it and be thankful to Allaah for His blessings that He has bestowed upon us.

Hadeeth Six

6- Narrated Aboo Hurayrah: Allaah’s Messenger ( ﷺ ) said, “If a dog drinks from the utensil of anyone of you it is essential to wash it seven times.”

And Muslim has collected in his book: “using sand for the first time.”

‘Abdullaah Ibn Mughaffal reported: The Messenger of Allaah ( ﷺ ) said: “When the dog licks the utensil, wash it seven times, and rub it with earth the eighth time.”

Reference (6):
Imaam Al-Bukhaaree has mentioned this hadeeth in one place in his book SAHIH AL BUKHARI: Aboo Hurayrah: vol. 1, p. 120, no 173.

Imaam At-Tirmithee has mentioned this hadeeth in his book SUNAN AT-TIRMITEE: vol. 1, p. 28, no. 79-91. But Imaam At-

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETH (6):

The above hadeeth is very clear that the utensil or vessel that is touched or licked by the dog is considered impure and the content in it is also becomes impure and hence it should be thrown away. It further says that the utensil should be washed one time with the sand and seven times with water.

WHY ONE MUST WASH THE UTENSIL SEVEN TIMES AND WHAT IS THE WISDOM BEHIND WASHING IT WITH SAND:

The Modern Science has proved the danger of the saliva of a dog. It must be clear that just to clean a thing from impurity, it is not necessary to wash it for seven times. The philosophy of cleaning a thing for seven times is different from that of simple purification. Physician of today say that mostly in the intestines of dogs there are germs and small worms approximately 4 mm. in length, and these move out from intestines with the excrement and stick to the hair around the anus. When dogs clean this place with tongue, it gets soiled with these organisms. If a dog licks a pot or someone kisses the dog, as the European and American ladies do, these are transferred from dog to the pot or to the mouth of the woman and then to the stomach. These organisms keep on moving, and penetrate into blood cells causing many fatal diseases. As the detection of these germs is not possible without microscopic tests, the Shari'a (Sharih – Islamic law) declared the dog's saliva an inherently impure thing by a general command, and whatever a thing is polluted with dog's saliva, must be cleaned seven times (which in one time should be with the soil) to be sure of its purity. For more details please see the footnotes of the book AHKAAMUL AHKAAM SHARHU UMDATIL AHKAAM: vol. 1, p. 27.

The dog is one of the unclean beasts according to Islam and eating its flesh is forbidden and its keeping in the houses as pets is also prohibited for the Muslims. They are however been permitted to keep dogs for hunting, herding and watching. The food or water or the vessel, which the dog licks, is rendered impure. Thus such food and water should be thrown away and the vessel should be washed seven times in order to purify it. Islam has declared the dog to be an unclean beast because its saliva has the germs of rabies in it. The writer of the article on ‘Dog’ in the Encyclopedia Britannica says: its rabies is more common in dogs than in any other animal.’ See vol. VII, p. 497. The dog is also responsible for the spread of ‘Canine Plague’. The virus causing this disease is air-borne and affects the other dogs very quickly.”

WHY SAND OR SOIL?

One must use sand or soil only to wash the utensil licked by a dog. Any another material cannot take its place. The Prophet never spoke anything from himself. It was revelation from Allaah that he spoke. At Prophet's time, there were other materials used for cleaning different things, like purifying the skin of the goat, sheep, etc. Similarly, he indicated a special form mixture for funeral bath, etc. Therefore, when he said 'sand' or 'soil' then even if we do not know the wisdom behind it due to our limited knowledge, we must not make our own decision or must give our own opinion. Today science has proved it that soil has some kind special particles that proved to be successful to cure many diseases.

IS IT NECESSARY TO WASH THE UTENSIL LICKED BY THE DOG SEVEN TIMES?

Yes, it is necessary to wash the utensil seven times, if the dog licks it. Firstly, it is the order given by the Messenger of Allaah. Secondly, there is no authentic hadeeth which speaks about less than seven times. Thirdly, ascribing the statement to any Imaam saying that it is according to so and so Imaam it is three, is wrong. According to all the Imaams any authentic hadeeth is found which is contradicting their opinion then their opinion should be rejected and the hadeeth should be taken. See the introduction of this book.

Water or utensil licked by any kind of dog (whether it is trained or any ordinary dog) is considered to be impure.

Water or utensil licked by any kind of dog (whether it is trained or any ordinary dog) is considered to be impure. There is no specific hadeeth that differentiate an ordinary dog from trained dog. The trained dogs are used to guard the house, sheep etc. and can be used for hunting animals. These kinds of dogs while they catch the hunted animal, they do not bite them, nor do they damage the body of the prey. They are so well trained that their teeth never get inside the flesh of the animal. The animals caught by these dogs are not directly cooked. They are well cleaned, washed, etc. Therefore, one must not say that water licked by the trained dogs is pure. It is a great difference between hunting the animals and licking the liquid. The Prophet ordered to kill the dogs that were infected by rabies and other dangerous diseases. But this again does not proof that other kinds that were not infected are pure or water leftover by them after drinking becomes pure. The ruling is same for all kind of dogs that water or utensil licked by any kind of dog, is impure and must be washed first time with the sand and seven times with the water.

Conclusion:

1. All kinds of dogs are impure and harmful, every Muslim must avoid having any direct contact with if not very necessary.
HADEETH SEVEN

7-Narrated Humraan, the freed slave of `Uthmaan bin `Affaan: I saw `Uthmaan bin `Affaan asking for a tumbler of water (and when it was brought) he poured water from it over his hands and washed them thrice and then put his right hand in the water container and rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out. Then he washed his face thrice and (then) forearms up to the elbows thrice, then passed his wet hands over his head and then washed each foot thrice. After that `Uthmaan said, "I saw the Prophet ( ) performing ablution like this of mine, and he said, 'If anyone performs ablution like that of mine and offers a two rak'aat prayer during which he does not think of anything else (not related to the present prayer) then his past sins will be forgiven."

HADEETH EIGHT

8- عن عمرو بن أبي شهذة عن أبيه جرير بن عثمان عن حبان بن عثمان عن حبان بن عثمان من الله صلى الله عليه وسلم أن قَالَ لَهُمْ: "یَوْمَ يُنىُونَ الْمَلَائِکَةُ الْجَمِيعُ حَيَّةً لِّلَّذِينَ كَانُوا يَ حْكُمُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ"، قالوا: "أَنَا لَا أُرِيدُۖ يَكُونَ أَمْرٌ لِّيَ بِهِ أَنْ أَتَّقِنَ، فَأَرْضِيَ أَنْ أَذْهَبْ إِلَيْهَا وَأَرْضِيَ أَنْ أَذْهَبْ إِلَيْهَا إِلَّا مَعَ الرِّجْلِينِ".
8- Narrated Yahyaa Al-Maazinee: A person asked ‘Abdullah bin Zaid, who was the grandfather of ‘Amr bin Yahyaa, “Can you show me how Allaah’s Messenger ( ) used to perform ablution?” ‘Abdullah bin Zaid replied in the affirmative and asked for earthenware pot containing water and in front of them performed ablution like that of the Prophet ( ). He poured water from the pot over his hand and washed his hands thrice and then he put his hands in the pot and rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out with three handfuls of water. Again he put his hand in the water and washed his face thrice and washed his forearms up to the elbows twice; and then put his hands in the water and then passed them over his head by bringing them to the front and then to the rear of the head once, and then he washed his feet up to the ankles.

In the other version it has that: “then passed his wet hands over his head beginning from the front and taking them to the back of his head up to the nape of the neck and then brought them to the front again from where the had started.”

And in the other version it says that: ‘Once Allaah’s Messenger ( ) came to us and we brought out water for him in a brass pot.’

EXPLANATION OF THE AHADEETH 7-10:

HADEETH SEVEN:
The hadeeth number seven explains the complete description of Prophet's ablution. It is one of the best ways to teach somebody. As it is very clear from 'Uthmaan 's hadeeth that he first asked for the water then washed his hands thrice, before putting them in to the vessel, so that water does not get spoiled. Then he took water with his right and rinsed his mouth and cleaned his nose, and then washed his complete face three times, and then he washed his hands up to the shanks, and then washed his feet on account of the marks of ablution, so he who can increase the lustre of his forehead (and that of his hands and legs) should do so.

HADEETH EIGHT:
The hadeeth eight is quite similar to hadeeth seven. Only few things are mentioned in details i.e. the description of wiping the head while performing ablution.

HADEETH NINE:
The hadeeth nine explains that ablution should be performed from the right hand side. The Messenger of Allaah ( ) always used right hand and right hand side to do desirable things. But there are some ahaadeeth in which the Messenger of Allaah has specifically ordered us to begin our ablution from right hand side. Therefore, every Muslim must begin ablution from the right hand side. May Allaah guide us to follow every teaching of the His Messenger at the best of our ability. Aameen.

HADEETH TEN:
The hadeeth ten deals with many important issues of this Ummah. It gives glad tidings to those who perform correct and complete ablation will be recognized as ‘The Ummah of The Prophet Muhammad () on the Day of Judgement’. Secondly, the Prophet () will welcome his Ummah to his Cistern on the Day of Judgement. At the same time he will ask the angels to push them back and push them away those people who had innovated new things in Islam after he left them with a pure and complete religion. Therefore, it has glad tidings for those who follow the Messenger of Allaah sincerely and a severe warning for those who innovate new things in the religion of Allaah.

THE DESCRIPTION OF THE CISTERN OF THE PROPHET ( )

Abu Hurayrah reported: Verily Allaah's Messenger (may peace be upon him) said: My Cistern has its dimensions wider than the distance between Aila and Aden, and its water is whiter than ice and sweeter than the honey diluted with milk, and its cups are more numerous than the numbers of the stars.

Sahl (b. Sa'd) reported: I heard Allaah's Apostle (may peace be upon him) as saying: I shall go to the Cistern before you and he who comes would drink and he who drinks would never feel thirsty, ..." SAHIH MUSLIM: vol. 4, p. 1236 no. 5682.

Abdullah b. 'Amr al-'As, reported Allaah's Messenger (may peace be upon him) as saying: "My Cistern (is as wide and broad that it requires) a motith’s journey (to go round it) all, and its sides are equal and its water is whiter than silver, and its odour is more fragrant than the fragrance of musk, and its jugs (placed round it) are like stars in the sky; and he who would drink from it would never feel thirsty after that."

Abu Dharr said: Allaah's Messenger, what about the vessels of that Cistern? He said: "By Him in Whose Hand is the life of Muhammad, the vessels would outnumber the stars in the sky and its planets shining on a dark cloudless night. These would be the vessels of Paradise. He who drinks out of it (the Cistern) would never feel thirsty. There would flow in it two spouts from Paradise and he who would drink out of it would not feel thirsty; and the distance between its (two corners) is that between 'Amman and Aila, and its water is whiter than milk and sweeter than honey."

Reference: SAHIH MUSLIM: vol. 4, p. 1238, no. 5701.

Thauban reported Allaah's Apostle (may peace be upon him) came to the graveyard and said: "Peace be upon you! the abode of the believing people and we, if Allaah so wills, are about to join you. I love to see my brothers."

They (the hearers) said: Amn’t we your brothers-Messenger of Allaah? He said: "You are my companions, and our brothers are those who have, so far, not come into the world."

They said: Messenger of Allaah, how would you recognise those persons of your Ummah who have not yet been born? He said: "Supposing a man had horses with white blazes on fore- heads and legs among horses which were all black, tell me, would he not recognise his own horses?"

They said: Certainly. Messenger of Allaah. He said: "They would come with white faces and arms and legs owing to ablution, and I would arrive at the Cistern before them...."

WHO WILL BE DRIVEN AWAY FROM THE CISTERN OF THE PROPHET ( ) ON THE LAST DAY:

Aboo Hurayrah reported: The Messenger of Allaah (may peace be upon him) said: "My people would come to me on the Cistern and I would drive away persons (from it) just as a person drives away other people’s camels from his camels." (The hearers) said: Apostle of Allaah, would you recognize us? He replied: "Yea, you would have a mark which other people will not have. You would come to me with a white blaze on your foreheads and white marks on your feet because of the traces of ablution. A group among you would be prevented from coming to me, and they would not meet me, and I would say: O my Lord, they are my companions. Upon this an angel would reply to me saying: Do you know what these people did after you.

Another version says: "...Some people would be driven away from my Cistern, for the stray camel is driven away with the camels. I would call out, Come, come. Then it would be said (to me): These people changed themselves after you, and I would say: Be off, be off."

Another version: "...and there would come to me people whom I would know and who would know me. Then there would be intervention between me and them."
Another version: that he (the Holy Prophet) would say: "They are my followers, and it would be said to him: You do not know what they did after you and I will say to them: Woe to him who changes (his religion) after me."

Reference: SAHIH MUSLIM: vol. 4, p. 1236 no. 5682:

Asma’, daughter of Abu Bakr said: Allaah’s Messenger (may peace be upon him) said: "I would be on the Cistern and so that I would be seeing those who would be coming to me from you, but some people would be detained (before reaching me). I would say: My Lord, they are my followers and belong to my Umma, and it would be said to me: ‘Do you know what they did after you? By Allaah, they did not do good after you, and they turned back upon their heels.’"

He (the narrator) said: Ibn Abu Mulaika used to say (in supplication): O Allaah, I seek refuge with Thee that we should turn back upon our heels or put to any trial about our religion.

Umm Salama, the wife of Allaah’s Apostle (may peace be upon him), said: ... Allaah’s Messenger (may peace be upon him) said: I shall be your harbinger on the Cistern; therefore, be cautious lest one of you should come (to me) and may be driven away like a stray camel. I would ask the reasons, and it would be said to me: You don’t know what innovations they made after you. And I would then also say: Be away.

Conclusion:
All four ahaadeeth are related to ablution and its merits. The last hadeeth is very important because if any innovation is added in ablution then it will become invalid. So if an ablution becomes invalid then the prayer that is offered after performing such ablution will also be considered invalid. Therefore, this hadeeth is very because those who innovate things in Islam and try to change it then they will be driven away from the Cistern of the Messenger of Allaah by the angels. Finally, the following lines are the complete description of the Prophet’s ablution.

The obligatory parts of the ablution mentioned in the Glorious Qur’aan:
Ablution has certain components which if not fulfilled according to the correct Islamic procedures, make one’s ablution void. It is mentioned in the Glorious Qur’aan:

Allaah says in the Glorious Qur’aan, "O you who believe, when you rise for prayer, wash your faces and your hands up to the elbows and lightly rub your heads and (wash) your feet up to the ankles.

1. Intention [intention should be from the hearts and not from the mouth]
2. Washing the face, [hands up to the wrist, rinsing the mouth, and cleaning the nose.]
3. Washing the arms to the elbow,
4. Wiping the head [along with the ears]
5. Wiping over the front portion of the scalp and the turban,
6. Washing the feet and the heels [along with the ankles]
7. Following the prescribed sequence [the sequence is not compulsory but highly recommended]

IMPORTANT NOTE:
Many Muslims normally consider the verses of the Glorious Qur’aan sufficient for themselves and they never accept ahaadeeth of the Messenger of Allaah ( ). The Messenger of Allaah ( ) is the practical example of the Glorious Qur’aan. In the Glorious Qur’aan many commandsmentioned which one cannot fulfill them without following the hadeeth of the Messenger ( ). Similarly, performing the ablution according to the verse of the Glorious Qur’aan, will be considered incomplete. Therefore, every Muslim must follow the accurate teachings of the Messenger of Allaah ( ). He has practically showed and taught his companions the accurate manner of performing ablution. Therefore, the following lines are the complete description of the Prophet’s ablution.

FIRST: INTENTION:
This is the desire to do the action and to please Allaah by following His command. It is purely an act of the heart, for the tongue (verbal pronunciation, and so on) has nothing to do with it. To pronounce it is not part of the Islamic law. There is not a single authentic hadeeth that speaks about the utterance of the words for the intention. Therefore, one must not put anything new to what the Messenger of Allah ( ) taught us. For further details refer to the ‘understanding section of the hadeeth one’.

SECOND: BEFORE WASHING THE FACE:
There are certain things that should be done before washing the face. These things are as follows:

1. Saying ‘Bismillaah’;
2. Starting from the right hand side;
3. Washing the hands up to the wrist;
4. Going through the fingers of both the hands while washing them up to the wrist:
5. Rinsing the mouth;
6. Cleaning the nose, i.e. pulling water hard in the nose, and blowing it out;

After that one must wash the face. According to some people the above six things are not obligatory, washing of face is enough. This is a very serious statement, because the Messenger of Allah ( ) never performed ablution without these parts unwashed. He performed his ablution along with them.

It is a general principle in Islam that the Messenger’s ( ) commands are considered obligatory, unless there is any alternative. There are many ahaadeeth in which the Messenger of Allah ( ) has clearly commanded the above six things to do while performing ablution. Therefore, it is must to do so while performing the ablution.

CONCLUSION:
Therefore, it is safe and best that one must perform his/her ablution according the Glorious Qur’aan and Sunnah. One point should be understood that there are two issues with regards to ablution, one is that some say the ablution will be valid even without the above six things, second opinion is that an ablution without them will be considered invalid, which means even their prayer will also be considered invalid, but there is no one who amongst both of them who says if an ablution is carried out with the above six things that he has committed a sin or innovated a new thing in Islam or his ablution is invalid. On the other hand, everyone says that the ablution is complete and valid. Therefore, the later one is better and safe.

(1). Mentioning the name of Allah at the beginning:

Aboo Hurayrah reported the Messenger of Allah said: “The Prayer of a person who does not perform ablution is not valid, and the ablation of a person who does not mention the name of Allah in the beginning of the ablution is not valid.”

Reference:

Aboo Hurayrah:

Sa’eed Ibn Zayd:

Aboo Sa’eed:

Saying ‘Bismillaah’ only not ‘Bismillaahir Rahmaanir Raheem’:

First, one must say: “BISMILLAHAH” once before washing the hands up to the wrist. There is not a single hadeeth that says that the Messenger of Allah has said “Bismillaah Hirrahmaanir Raheem” the Messenger of Allah has uttered only ‘Bismillaah’. It is mentioned in Sunan An-Nasaee that the Messenger of Allah has ordered his companions to start their ablution with ‘Bismillaah’.

EIGHTH: DU’AA AFTER ABLUTION:

Ashhadu allaa Ilaaha illallaahu Wahdahoo laa Shareeka lahoo wa ashhadu anna Mu’ammadan ‘abduhu wa rasooluhi Allaa-hum-maj ‘alinee minat taw-waa-bee-na waj ‘alinee minal muta-tah he-reen

‘Umar ibn al-Khattaab reported the Messenger of Allaah () as saying, “If anyone performs the ablution completely, then says, ‘I testify that there is no god but Allaah and that Muhammad is His servant and messenger’, ‘O Allaah, put me among the penitent, and put me among those who are purified’ the eight gates of paradise will be opened for him and he may enter by whichever of them he wishes.”

Following the prescribed sequence

Following the prescribed sequence is not compulsory but it is highly recommended. May Allaah guide all of us to the right path. Aameen. There are some people who say that following the prescribed sequence is must and they deny the ahaadeeth, which do not make such restriction. Therefore, once we find the hadeeth that allows us to do a certain thing then we should sometimes do so. Those who say that it is must they follow the sequence mentioned in the verse 6, chapter 5, Sooratul Maydah. They say that, Allaah mentioned the obligations in a specific order. He also differentiated the legs from the hands—though both of them have to be washed—from the head, which only needs to be wiped. The polytheists of Arabia would not differentiate items unless there was some benefit in doing so. The way Allaah structured the ablution made it easier for them to comprehend it. Al-Ma’idah 6 explains what is obligatory and it falls under the generality of the Prophet’s statement, “Begin with what Allaah began with.” The Prophet used to follow that sequence as one of ablution’s principles. There is no such report that the Prophet, upon whom be peace, ever departed from that sequence. Ablution is part of worship, and in matters of worship there is no room for anything except doing what has been commanded. See FIQHUS SUNNAH BY Syed Saabiq.

I do not want to argue with anybody because I am authorized to do so. It is only ‘Ulamaa (scholars) can do but I can say one thing that I would like to follow authentic ahaadeeth, whether people follow them or not. Therefore, after reading the answer of Ash-Shaykh Al-Albaanee in TAMAAM AL-MUNNAH I found two more evidences proving that following the prescribed sequence is not compulsory but it is highly recommended.

Narrated Humraan, the freed slave of ‘Uthmaan bin ‘Affaan: I saw ‘Uthmaan bin ‘Affaan asking while he was sitting on the chair (and when it was brought) he poured water from it over his hand washed it and then insert his right hand in the vessel washed his hands thrice and then he washed his face thrice and then rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out. and (then) forearms up to the elbows thrice, then passed his wet hands over his head and then washed each foot along with the ankles thrice. After that ‘Uthmaan said, “I saw the Prophet ( ) performing ablution like this of mine, and he said, ‘If anyone performs ablution like that of mine and offers a two rak'aat prayer during which he does not think of anything else (not related to the present prayer) then his past sins will be forgiven.”

Al-Miqdaam Ibn M'adee Karib said that the Messenger of Allaah was brought water for ablution, then he washed his hands thrice, and then washed his face thrice and then washed his arms thrice and then rinsed his and cleansed his nose thrice then passed his wet hands over his head and then washed each foot along with the ankles thrice.

and another hadeeth reported by Rubay’e bint Mu’awweth vol. 2, p. 27, no. 249.

This hadeeth is an evidence of Ash-Shaykh Muhammad Naasirudddeen al-Albaanee. He says that sequence in performing the ablution is not obligatory, i.e. it is permissible to wash arms before washing face or one can wash legs first then hands etc. The text that is found in Aboo Daawood is with different words and few words are back and forward and in some versions few words are in the brackets as if they were missing and so on.
The latest version that is published by DAR IBN HAZM in 1998 has ‘Rinsing of mouth and cleaning of nose’ in the brackets in between the words ‘washing of arms and face’. The same is found in the version published by DAR AL-HADEETH in1969. But the version that is published by MAKTABUT TARBIYATIL ARABEE LI DUWALIL KHALEEJ AR-RIYAAD in 1989., this is very famous book known as SAHEEH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD: vol. 1, p. 26, n0.112-121. has a text that mentions the correct order of ablution. But if we read ‘AWNUL M’ABOOD SHARH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD: vol. 1, pp. 145-6, no. 121. The text is having different order of performing the ablution, i.e. rinsing of mouth and cleaning of the nose is mentioned after washing the arms three times. Ash-Shaykh Shamsul Haqq ‘Azeemaaabaadee says that this hadeeth is ‘SHAATH’ i.e. it contradicts all authentic narrations, because it has ‘washing of face’ first and ‘rinsing of mouth and cleaning of nose’ afterwards. There is no other hadeeth except this one, having different words, whereas all the other narrations are same as the sequence and order of the ablution.

Conclusion:
According to me, one must maintain the sequence and order while performing the ablution, but if someone is not following the sequence strictly then I would not say that his ablution not valid.

Elongating the streaks of light

There is no harm if someone wants to wash limbs longer than what is mentioned in the hadeeth, because if it had prohibited then Aboo Hurayrah would not have done.

Economizing the use of water, even if one is in front of the sea

It is haraam to use access water for ablution:
‘Abdullaah Ibn Mughaffal heard his son praying to Allaah: O Allaah, I ask Thee a white palace on the right of Paradise when I enter it. He said to his son: O my dear son ask Allaah for Paradise and seek refuge in Him from Hell-Fire, for I heard the Messenger of Allaah say: “In this community there will be some people who will exceed the limits in purification as well as in supplication.”

Reference:
Imaam Aboo Daawood has collected this hadeeth inhis book SUNAN ABU DAWUD: vol. 1, p. 25, no. 96. Imaam Al-Albaanee has authenticated it in his book SAHEEH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD: vol. 1, p. 21, no.87-96.

Extravagance is to use water without any benefit, like washing the parts more than three times.
Supplication while performing ablution

There is not a single authentic hadeeth about this. The du'aa is only mentioned after finishing the ablution. At the beginning there is only ‘Bismillah’. Therefore, those du'aas which some people make while performing ablution they are all innovations. May Allaah protect us from every kind of innovation in the religion. Aameen.

One who prays two rak'ah after ablution Allaah will forgive his past sins:

The Messenger of Allaah said:

Narrated Aboo Hurayrah: At the time of the Fajr prayer the Prophet asked Bilaal, "Tell me of the best deed you did after embracing Islam, for I heard your footsteps in front of me in Paradise." Bilaal replied, "I did not do anything worth mentioning except that whenever I performed ablution during the day or night, I prayed after that ablution as much as was written for me."

HADEETH ELEVEN (11):

11- Narrated Anas: Whenever the Prophet ( ) went to answer the call of nature, he used to say, “Alaa humma innee a’oothu bika minal khubuthi wal khaaba’ith” i.e. O Allaah, I seek Refuge with you from all offensive and wicked things (evil deeds and evil spirits- male and female jinns and devils).7

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETH 11:

What should be uttered while entering the privy?
The words al khubth and al-khabaaith literally mean wicked and noxious things. But The Messenger of Allaah ( ) has mentioned about male and female devils who dwell in the toilets.
The above hadeeth is very clear that how the Messenger of Allaah ( ) was conscious of Allaah that he asked His protection even while going to privy. It also teaches us that the Messenger of Allaah ( ) was always aware of enmity of the Shaytaan and hence, he sought Allaah’s refuge from him. Therefore, we should also follow his Sunnah so that we may also be protected from Shaytaan’s enmity.

Adding ‘BISMILLAAH’ before the du’aa:

In the version reported by ‘Alee that the Messenger of Allaah ( ) said: “The shelter between the jinn and the private parts of the descendants of Aadam is that as he enters the privy, he should say: ‘Bismillaah’ i.e. In the name of Allaah’.8

Imaam Ibn Hajar has mentioned a hadeeth whose chain of narrators is similar to the condition of Imaam Muslim’s. In this

hadeeth the Messenger of Allaah () commanded, “When you want to enter into privy then you should say, ‘BISMILLAAH, A’OTHOO BILLAAH MINAL KHUBUTHI WAL KHABAAETH’ ‘In the Name of Allaah, I seek Allaah’s refuge from - male and female jinns and devils’.9

Significance of making this du’aa:

The Messenger of Allaah ( ) has taught us this du’aa, which should be uttered before entering the toilets. In another version he has mentioned the reason why one should say this du’aa. This tradition also refers to the presence of Jinns and devils in the lavatory.

Zayd Ibn Arqam reported that the Messenger of Allaah ( ) said: “Verily, these public toilets are visited by devils. Therefore, when anyone of you enters a toilet he should say this du’aa: ‘…’. One must enter the privy with his/her left leg and must come out with the right leg.10

What should be uttered while coming out of the privy?

Yousuf Ibn Aboo Burdah reported, “I visited ‘Aishah (May Allaah be pleased with her) and heard saying: Allaah’s Messenger ( ) would say as he came out of the privy, “Ghufraa-nak” “Oh! Allaah, I ask Your forgiveness.”11

Why did did the Prophet ( ) say this du’aa although he was protected from the influence of the Shayaateen:

Although he was safe and protected from their influence, he used to seek refuge in Allaah in order to teach his Ummah and also to show that no one can be protected from Jinns and devils unless they seek Allaah’s refuge from them.

HADEETH TWELVE (12):

12- عن أبي أُوْبَدَ اللَّهِ التَّصَدِّيْرَيْنَ إِنَّ اللَّهَ سُلْيَ اللَّهِ عِلَيَّهُ وَسُلْمَ قَالَ: (إِذَا أَنْبِئَمُكُمُ الغَابِبُ فَتَأْتِكُمْ) قال أبو أُوْبَدَ فَذَا أَنْبِئْنَا مَحَرَّجِي بِنْ مَا يَقُولُ، فَتَأْتِنَا بَيْنَ الْقِبْلَةِ فَنَحْرِفُ وَنَسْتَفْخِرُ اللَّهِ تَعَالَi

Abu Aiyub Al-Ansari reported: The Prophet ( ) said, “Whenever you go to the privy neither face nor turn your back to the Qibla but face either east or west while defecating.” Abu Aiyub added, “When we arrived in Sham (Syria) we came across some lavatories facing the Qibla; therefore we turned ourselves while using them and asked for Allaah’s forgiveness.”

HADEETH THIRTEEN (13):

13- عن عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بن عُمَرَ اللَّهَ كَانَ يَقُولُ إِنَّمَا يَقُولُونَ إِذَا قَعَدتَّ عَلَى حَاجَتِكَ قَالَ: (فَتَأْتِيُمُ الْجَنَّ) فَتَأْتُونَا بَيْنَ الْقِبْلَةِ وَلَا بَيْنَ الْمَدِينَةِ قَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بن عُمَرَ الْخَالِقَ: (أَنْبِئْهَا يُقَالُ نَاسِمَةُ قَالَ لَنَأْتُوُا هَذَا نَاسِمَةَ. قَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ كَانَ يَقُولُ إِنَّمَا يَقُولُونَ إِذَا قَعَدتَّ عَلَى حَاجَتِكَ قَالَ: (فَتَأْتِيُمُ الْجَنَّ) فَتَأْتُونَا بَيْنَ الْقِبْلَةِ وَلَا بَيْنَ الْمَدِينَةِ قَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بن عُمَرَ الْخَالِقَ: (أَنْبِئْهَا)

13-Narrated ‘Abdullah bin 'Umar: People say, “Whenever you sit for answering the call of nature, you should not face the Qibla but face either east or west while defecating.” I told them, “Once I went up the roof of our house and I saw Allaah’s Apostle answering the call of nature across some lavatories facing the Qibla; therefore we turned ourselves while using them and asked for Allaah’s forgiveness.”

ALL PRAISE IS DUE TO ALLAAH WHO REMOVED FROM ME THE FILTH AND RELIEVED ME FROM THE IMPURITY.”
EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADITHS 12-13:

MANNERS OF SITTING IN THE PRIVY

How one can sit in the privy?

Imam Shamsul Haqq ‘Azeemabaadee reported that the Imam Al-Khattabi said: the commandment of turning towards the east or the west at the time of urination or excretion was specified for the people of Madeenah where the Qibla lay towards the south. The people should avoid turning their face or back to the directions where the Qibla lies towards the east or west while answering the call of nature.

The prohibition is only in the open area and not in the the privy which is covered with four walls:

There are many ahaadeeth, which support the above view. Imam Al-Bukhari has mentioned his book SAHIH AL-BUKHARI: CHAPTER (11). WHILE URINATING OR DEFECATING, NEVER FACE THE QIBLA EXCEPT WHEN YOU ARE SCREENED BY A BUILDING OR A WALL OR SOMETHING LIKE THAT. ‘Something like that’ is explained n Fathul Baaree: that it is like huge stones, or pillars, or pile of wood, and anything, which covers and hides. One must understand that when there are two issues contradict one another then we should agree to the explanation of the Sahaabah (the companions of the Prophet ), because they the right judges. They are the people who lived with the Prophet (), therefore, they are the right people to understand what is permissible and what is not. They are the people who knew, how and where and when it is permissible or not. We should not make our own judgement to make things permissible and non-permissible. Similarly, there are many narrations in which it is mentioned that the Prophet himself did so, as it is mentioned in the hadeeth number 13, above. The following hadeeth solves the disputes:

Marwaan Al-Asfar said: I saw Ibn ‘Umar make his camel kneel down facing the Qibla, then he sat down urinating in its direction. So I said: Abu ‘Abdul Rahman has this not been forbidden? He replied: Why not, that forbidden only in open country, but when there is something between you and the Qibla that conceals you, then there is no harm.

Jaabir ibn ‘Abdullaah reported that the Messenger of Allaah forbade us to face the Qibla while urinating. Then I saw him a year before he breathed his last, turning his face to Qibla.

Conclusion:
The above explanation of Ibn ‘Umar and the two hadeeths, number 13 and hadeeth of Jaabir indicate that the prohibition to face the Qibla or to turn one’s back towards it while urinating or relieving oneself applies only when one does so in an open place, but not in a built-up area or an enclosure.

According to Imam Ibn Qudaamah, it is the opinion of ‘Abbaas and Ibn ‘Umar and similar is the opinion of Imam Maalik and Imam Ash-Shaafi’ee and Imam Ibnul Munzir and he further said that it is the correct opinion. And after mentioning all the related ahaadeeth and who collected them, he further said that it is also the opinion of Imam Ahmad.

Hadeeth Fourteen (14):

MANNERS OF EASING ONESELF IN THE PRIVY:

SUBULUS SALAAM: published by Dar Ibn Al-Jauzee: p. 390. Imam As-San-aanee said in his book that this is the closest opinion, i.e. it is permissible in the toilet and it is prohibited in the open area. TAYSEERUL ALLAAM SHARHI ‘UMDATIL AHKAAM: vol. 1, 32.
14- Narrated Anas bin Maalik: Whenever Allaah’s Messenger ( ) went to answer the call of nature, I along with another boy used to carry a tumbler full of water (for cleaning the private parts) and an ‘Anza (spear-headed stick).

HADEETH FIFTEEN (15):

None of you should hold penis with his right hand while urinating, or wipe himself with his right hand in privy, and should not breathe into the vessel (from which he drinks).

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETHS 14-15:

Istinjaa: Istinjaa is a special method of cleaning oneself in the toilet. It is an ‘Arabic word. It is a cleaning process after excretion of stool and urine. Minimum three pieces of stones, mud or paper or anything other than dung, bones, or impure things should be used for cleaning after passing stool and urine. If it is not carried out properly as taught by the Messenger of Allaah ( ) then Allaah will punish the person in the grave. It is one of the chief causes for which a person will suffer punishment in the grave. Therefore, it is essential that everybody must learn the correct method and manner of cleaning oneself in the toilet.

One can understand from hadeeth number 14 the followings:

1. It is understood that one can take the help of children even though they are not slaves, as the two children were helping the Messenger of Allaah ( ). Normally, at the time of Prophet ( ) the people used to have slaves who would serve their masters and look after them and even arrange water for them to clean themselves from impurities, etc. But it is permissible to take the help of those children who are not slaves, as it is understood from the hadeeth.

2. The hadeeth is one of the good examples for those students who serve their teachers.

3. One should carry along with him like a spearheaded stick or pointed iron piece to dig a hole or to soften the ground while urinating in an open area. Many scholars said that the Messenger of Allaah ( ) used to carry with him such stick due to two reasons; (1) to soften the land and (2), to make a stand in front of him while urinating or easing himself, or having sutrah in front him while offering a prayer in an open area. The last opinion is close to the Sunnah.

One can understand following points from hadeeth number 15 and following hadeeth of Salmaan Al-Faarasee:

’Abdurahman ibn Zayd related that Salmaan was asked, “Your Prophet teaches you everything, even how to relieve yourselves?” Salmaan said, “Certainly ... He forbade us from facing the qiblah while doing so, from cleaning ourselves with our right hand, and from cleaning ourselves with less than three stones. We also 25 Something that put before a person and a place of prostration.

should not use an impure substance or a bone to clean ourselves."

1. The Messenger of Allaah ( ) has ordered us to use odd numbers of stones while cleaning our private parts. The minimum number of stones should be three as it is mentioned in many traditions of the Prophet ( ). Imaam Daaraqutnee has collected 14 traditions on this issue in his book, out which many are authentic and the one above, the hadeeth of Salmaan. It is mentioned that it should be at least three stones and not less than three.

2. One must not face the Qibla or turn his back while relieving in the open area but it permissible in the toilet.

3. It is prohibited to hold ones uncovered penis with the right hand, as it is in the hadeeth.

4. It is also prohibited to catch the penis with the right hand while urinating.

5. It is also prohibited to clean oneself with right hand in the toilet.

6. And it is prohibited to breathe into the vessel containing water or any drinks.

Manners of using right hand:

Hafsa reported, "The Messenger of Allah ( ), reserved his right hand for eating, drinking, putting on his clothes, (taking and giving) . He used his left hand for other actions."

Similar hadeeth is also reported by ‘Aishah with slightly different wordings.

Imaam and ‘Allamah Shamsul Haqq ‘Azeemaabaadee has mentioned in his book, ‘AWNUL M’ABOOD that Imaam An-Nawawee said: "it is the principle in Islam that anything which is respectful and descent like wearing dress, paints or pajaamah, socks, entering the mosque, using of miswaak (tooth-stick), using collyrium, cutting nails, trimming mustache, combing hair, plucking hair of the under arm, shaving the head, salutation in the prayer, washing the limbs while performing ablution, coming out of the toilet, eating and drinking, shaking hands, kissing the Black Stone (Hajral-Aswad), etc, are all should be done frm the left hand side and their opposites should be done from left hand sides.

16- Narrated ibn ‘Abbaas: The Prophet ( ) once passed by two graves and said, “These two persons are being tortured not for a major sin (to avoid). One of them never saved himself from being soiled with his urine, while the other used to go about with calumnies (to make enmity between friends).” The Prophet (r) then took a green leaf of a date-palm tree, split it into (pieces) and fixed one on each grave. They said, “O Allaah’s Messenger (r) I Why have you done so?” He replied, “I hope that their punishment might be lessened till these (the pieces of the leaf) become dry.” (See the foot-note of Hadeeth 215).

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETHS 16:

It is clearly understood from the above hadeeth that a person who does clean himself properly on the toilet and a person who does not control his tongue against calumny, then such a person will be punished in the grave.

The following points should be bare in the minds:

1. Everybody must clean oneself properly in the toilet. No impurity should be left out unwashed.

2. Everybody must control ones tongue against calumny.

These two sins are such that a man commits them inadvertently. They are indicative of the carelessness on the part of a man: the first is carelessness in speech and the second one shows the carelessness of action. The hadith stresses that one should be very careful about the words that one utters and should realize that their expression leads to hardship of this world and torments in the grave.35

3. We must have strong and correct believe that there will be a punishment in the grave.
4. Angel Jibreel informed the Prophet ( ) about the punishment in the grave, he did not know on his own.
5. The Prophet ( ) dug the twigs so that as long as they remain fresh Allah might reduce the percentage of the punishment. According to Hafiz Ibn Hajar in Fathul-Baaree: This action was a kind of invocation on the part of the Prophet ( ) for the deceased persons.36
6. It is not the Prophet’s ( ) regular Sunnah to dug flowers or rush cold water over the graves as it is to be seen in our countries.
7. We must follow the correct teachings of the Prophet ( ) with regards to visiting the graves of the Muslims. I will mention complete details of the manners of visiting the graveyard of the Muslims in the book of Janazah (inshaallaah).
8. The Sunnah of the Prophet ( ) is to greet the deceased persons with Salaam, while visiting the graveyard of the Muslims. As it is mentioned in Sahih Muslim:

MANNERS OF VISITING THE GRAVEYARD OF THE MUSLIMS

WHAT IS TO BE SAID BY THE SIDE OF THE SICK AND THE DEAD

Umm Salama reported Allah’s Messenger (may peace be upon him) as saying: Whenever you visit the sick or the dead, supplicate for good because angels say” Amen” to whatever you say.

She added: When Abu Salama died, I went to the Apostle of Allah (may peace be upon him) and said: Messenger of Allah, Abu Salama has died. He told me to recite:

" O Allah! forgive me and him (Abu Salama) and give me a better substitute than he.” So I said (this), and Allah gave me in exchange, Muhammad, who is better for me than him (Abu Salama).

WHAT IS TO BE SAID WHILE VISITING THE GRAVEYARD AND THE SUPPLICATION TO BE OFFERED FOR THE DEAD LYING IN THE GRAVES

’A’isha reported (that whenever it was her turn for Allah’s Messenger [may peace be upon him] to spend the night with her) he would go out towards the end of the night to al-Baqi’ and say: Peace be upon you, abode of a people who are believers. What you were promised would come to you after some delay; and God willing we shall join you. O Allah, grant forgiveness to the inhabitants of Baqi’ al-Gharqad.

Qutaiba did not mention his words: “ would come to you”.38

... He (Gabriel) said: Your Lord has commanded you to go to the inhabitants of Baqi’ (to those lying in the graves) and beg pardon for them. I said: Messenger of Allah, how should I pray for them (How should I beg forgiveness for them)? He said: Say, Peace be upon the inhabitants of this city (graveyard) from among the Believers and the Muslims, and may Allah have mercy on those who have gone ahead of us, and those who come later on, and we shall, God willing, join you.39

...” Peace be upon you, the inhabitants of the city, among the believers, and Muslims, and God willing we shall join you. I beg of Allah peace for us and for you.”40

Abu Huraira reported: The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) came to the graveyard and said: Peace be upon you! the abode of the believing people and we, if God so wills, are about to join you...41

WHAT IS THE REASON ONE MUST VISIT THE GRAVEYARD:
1. It reminds one to mindful of death.
2. It reminds one of the hereafter.
3. It withdraws one’s attention from the world42

So visit the graves, for that makes you mindful of death.

In the version of Ibn Maajah: “Visit graves for this visit reminds you of the Hereafter.”

WHAT IS ALLOWED AND WHAT IS NOT ALLOWED WITH REGARDS TO THE GRAVES

FORBIDDANCE TO BUILD MOSQUES ON THE GRAVES AND DECORATING THEM WITH PICTURES AND FORBIDDANCE TO USE THE GRAVES AS MOSQUES

'A'isha reported: Umm Habiba and Umm Salama made a mention before the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) of a church which they had seen in Abyssinia and which had pictures in it. The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said: When a pious person amongst them (among the religious groups) dies they build a place of worship on his grave, and then decorate it with such pictures. They would be the worst of creatures on the Day of judgement in the sight of Allah.

'A'isha reported: The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said during his illness from which he never recovered: Allah cursed the Jews and the Christians that they took the graves of their prophets and righteous men as places of worship, but you must not take graves as mosques; I forbid you to do that.

Jundub reported: I heard from the Apostle of Allah (may peace be upon him) five days before his death and he said: I stand acquitted before Allah that I took any one of you as friend, for Allah has taken me as His friend, as he took Ibrahim as His friend. Had I taken any one of my Ummah as a friend, I would have taken Abu Bakr as a friend. Beware of those who preceded you and used to take the graves of their prophets and righteous men as places of worship, but you must not take graves as mosques; I forbid you to do that.

Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet had said, "Offer some of your prayers (Nawafil) at home, and do not take your houses as graves."

Abu Harairah reported the Messenger of Allah as saying Do not make your houses as graveyards. Satan runs away from the house in which Surah Baqara is recited.

Chapter 201: IT IS FORBIDDEN TO SIT OVER THE GRAVE AND OBSERVE PRAYER FACING TOWARDS IT

Book 004, Number 2119:
Abu Huraira reported Allah's Messenger (may peace be upon him) as saying: It is better that one of you should sit on live coats which would burn his clothing and come in contact with his skin than that he should sit on a grave.

A hadith like this has been narrated by Suhail with the same chain of transmitters.

Chapter 200: IT IS FORBIDDEN TO PLASTER THE GRAVE OR CONSTRUCTING ANYTHING OVER IT

Book 004, Number 2116:
Jabir said: Allah's Messenger (may peace be upon him) forbade that the graves should be plastered or they be used as sitting places (for the people), or a building should be built over them.

The Messenger of Allah has taught us the manners of cleaning oneself in the toilet. He has mentioned in a hadeeth reported by Aboo Hurayrah that the Messenger of Allah said that:

"I am like a father to you just as a father to his son. So I instruct you that..."

The hadeeth mentioned above is very clear that learning the manners of cleaning in the toilet is very important. Therefore, the Messenger of Allah seriously taught us these manners. A good father sincerely teaches his beloved son for his future welfare. The Messenger of Allah was likewise our sincere father who taught everything to us for our welfare in this world and in the next. In another version it very seriously mentioned that Allah punishes those in the grave who do not clean themselves in the toilet properly and neatly. See hadeeth number sixteen of this book. The Messenger of Allah has taught us complete manners of cleaning oneself in the toilet.

1. How one can enter the toilet, (2). What to say while entering the toilet and while coming out of the toilet, (3). How to use water, stones, mud and paper etc. while cleaning oneself in the toilet, (4). Which hand should be used to clean oneself, (5). What is permissible and what is not while sitting in the toilet, and (6). Where one can sit and relief oneself and where one cannot, (7). How one can sit in the toilet etc.

MANNERS OF CLEANING ONESELF IN THE OPEN AREA

1. One must not carry anything, which has Allah’s name on it while going for easing oneself.
2. One should go far away from others while relieving himself in an open area, or should go to the privy.
3. One should mention the name of Allah and seek refuge in Him when entering the privy or removing his clothes to relieve himself. This can be said before removing the clothes if the person is in the open area and if he is entering the privy then it should be uttered before entering in to it.
4. One should seek a soft and low piece of ground to protect himself from impurities.
5. One must not raise his garments before lowering to the ground while relieving oneself.
6. One should neither face nor turn his back on the Qibla while relieving oneself.
7. One may not urinate while standing if he thinks that the urine drops will dirty his clothes, otherwise it is permissible to urinate while standing.
8. One must remove any impurities from his clothes and body.

MANNERS OF RELIEVING ONESELF IN THE PRIVY:

1. One must not carry anything, which has Allah’s name on it while going for easing oneself.
2. One should mention the name of Allah and seek refuge in Him when entering the privy. It should be uttered before entering in to it.
EXPLANATION OF ‘UMDATUL-AHKAAM

3. One must enter the privy with the left leg and must come out with the right leg.
4. One should not clean himself with his right hand.
5. One may not urinate while standing if he thinks that the urine drops will dirty his clothes, otherwise it is permissible to urinate while standing.
6. One should not greet anybody with Salaam or reply anybody’s salaam while urinating.

MANNERS WHILE COMING OUT OF THE PRIVY OR RELIEVED IN AN OPEN AREA

1. One must enter the privy with the left leg and must come out with the right leg.
2. One must remove any impurities from his clothes and body.
3. One should remove any bad smell from his hands after cleaning himself.
4. One should sprinkle his penis and underwear with water after urination.

PLACES WHERE URINATING IS PROHIBITED

1. One should avoid shaded places and those places where people walk and gather:
2. One should not urinate in bathing places or in still water:

MANNERS OF CLEANING ONESELF IN THE OPEN AREA

1. One must not carry anything, which has Allaah’s name on it while going for easing oneself.
2. One should go far away from others while relieving oneself in an open area, or should go to the privy.

This is the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allaah ( ). This is one of the good manners, so that others cannot hear noxious sounds or smell bad odour. This is one of the best examples of the modesty.

Jaabir reported, ”We were journeying with the Messenger of Allaah ( ), and he would only relieve himself when he was out of sight.”

In another version it has that ”When he wanted to relieve himself, he would go where no one could see him.”

Al-Mughairah Ibn Sh’ubah reported that: ”When the Messenger of Allaah ( ), went out he would go very far away.”

3. One should mention the name of Allaah and seek refuge in Him when entering the privy or removing his clothes to relieve himself. This can be said before removing the clothes if the person is in the open area and if he is entering the privy then it should be uttered before entering in to it.

4. One should seek a soft and low piece of ground to protect himself from impurities.

There is no sound hadeeth with regards to this issue but the hadeeth which is collected Imaam Aboo Daawood in his book Sunan Abu Dawud: no. 3. is declared as a weak tradition due to one of the unknown narrators. According to Shamsul Haqq ‘Azeemabaadee although the hadeeth is weak but its meaning is sound because there are many ahaadeeth which speak about the punishment in the grave for those who do not keep themselves clean and pure from urine. Hence, one must take great care to safeguard himself from the impurity of urine. The punishment is mentioned in the hadeeth number 16 of this book. Therefore, if anyone wants to urinate in an open area then he must look for the soft ground otherwise if anyone urinates on hard or stony ground, he will not be able to guard himself from the urine drops and most naturally his body and clothes will be defiled with the impurities.

5. One must not raise his garments before lowering to the ground while relieving oneself:

Ibn ‘Umar repoeted : When the Prophet () wanted to relieve himself, he would not raise his garments, until he lowered himself near the ground.

6. One should neither face nor turn his back on the qiblah while relieving himself in an open area.

7. One may not urinate while standing if he thinks that the urine drops will dirty his clothes, otherwise it is permissible to urinate while standing.

If a person can guarantee that no impurities will touch his clothes, it is permissible to urinate while standing.

Hudhaifah relates that the Messenger of Allah ( ) went to a public garbage dump and urinated while standing. Hudhaifah went away, and the Prophet then called him over. The Prophet made ablution and wiped over his shoes.

Commenting upon the issue, an-Nawawi says, “To urinate while sitting is most desirable in my opinion, but to do so standing is permissible. Both acts are confirmed by the Messenger of Allah ( ).

8. One must remove any impurities from his clothes and body

To do so, he can use a rock, stone or any other pure matter. One may use only water to clean the area, or any combinations of purifying agents.

‘Aishah reported that the Messenger of Allah ( ) said,

“When one of you goes to relieve himself, he should clean himself with three stones.”

Anas also related the Prophet ( ) as saying, “Purify yourselves from urine, as most punishment in the grave is due to it.”

MANNERS OF RELIEVING ONESELF IN THE PRIVY:

1. One must not carry anything, which has Allaah’s name on it while going for easing oneself.

2. One should mention the name of Allah and seek refuge in Him when entering the privy. It should be uttered before entering into it.

3. One must enter the privy with the left leg and must come out with the right leg.

4. One should not clean himself with his right hand.

5. One may not urinate while standing if he thinks that the urine drops will dirty his clothes, otherwise it is permissible to urinate while standing.

6. One should not greet anybody with Salaam or reply anybody’s salaam while urinating. Ibn ‘Umar related that a man passed by the Prophet ( ), and greeted him while he (the Prophet ) was urinating. The Prophet ( ) did not return his greeting.

Muhaajir ibn Qunfuz reported that he came to the Prophet ( ) while he was urinating. He saluted him. The Prophet ( ) did not return the salutation to him until he performed ablution. He then apologized to him, saying I dislike remembering Allaah except in the state of purification.

MANNERS WHILE COMING OUT OF THE PRIVY OR RELIEVED IN AN OPEN AREA

This hadeeth is fully referenced in IRWAUL GAHALEEL: vol. 1, pp. 310-312. SAHEEH UL JAAM’ES SAGHEER WA ZIYAADATIHI: no. 3002.

See the details of this point in the hadeeth number 15 of this book.

EXPLANATION OF ‘UMDATUL-AHKAAM

1. One must enter the privy with the left leg and must come out with the right leg.
2. One must remove any impurities from his clothes and body.
3. One should remove any bad smell from his hands after cleaning himself.

Abu Hurairah said, "When the Messenger of Allah (), relieved himself, I used to bring him a container of water. He would cleanse himself, then rub his hands against the soil."66

4. One should sprinkle his penis and underwear with water after urination.

This is based on the hadith related by al-Hakim ibn Sufyan or Sufyan ibn al-Hakim who said, "When the Messenger of Allah (), urinated, he would wash and sprinkle (his penis)."67

In another narration it states, "I saw the Messenger of Allah () urinate, after which he sprinkled water over his penis."68

PLACES WHERE URINATING IS PROHIBITED

1. One should avoid shaded places and those places where people walk and gather:

Abu Hurairah reported that the Messenger of Allah () said, "Beware of those acts which cause others to curse." They asked, "What are those acts?" He said, "Relieving yourself in the people's walkways or in their shade." 69

Mu ‘aaz ibn Jabal reported: The Prophet said: “Be on your guard against three things which provoke cursing: easing in the watering places and on the thoroughfares, and in the shade of the trees.”70

2. One should not urinate in bathing places or in still water:

‘Abdullah ibn Mughaffal narrated that the Prophet said, "None of you should urinate in a bathing place and then make ablution in the water."71

Ibn ‘Abdal Rahmaan reported: I met a man who remained in the company of the Prophet just as Abu Hurairah remained in his company. He then added: The Apostle of Allaah forbade that anyone amongst us should comb his hair everyday or urinate in the place where he takes a bath.72

If there is a drain in the bathing place, it is permissible to urinate into it.

Miswaak and its merits

HADEETH SEVENTEEN:

17- Narrated Aboo Hurayrah: Allaah's Messenger () said, "If I had not found it hard for my followers or the people, I would have ordered them to clean their teeth with Siwaak for every prayer."

HADEETH EIGHTEEN:

18- Narrated Hudhaifa: Whenever the Prophet got up at night, he used to clean his mouth with Siwak.

"O Allaah! Let me be with the highest companions." and then died. 'Aaisha used to say, "He died while his head was resting between my chest and chin."75

Another version : Narrated 'Aa'ishah : I saw the Prophet looking at the Siwaak and I knew that he loved it, so I said to the Messenger of Allaah "Shall I take it for you?" He nodded in agreement.76

HADEETH TWENTY:

"The toothbrush purifies the mouth and is pleasing to the Lord."45

Using a toothbrush is liked at any time, but there are six times in which it is especially liked:

1. ABLUTION: The Messenger of Allaah ( ) has highly recommended the use of miswaak before ablution:

Abu Hurayrah reported that the Prophet ( ), said, "Were it not to be a hardship on my community, I would have ordered them to use a toothbrush for every ablution."46

2. PRAYER: The Messenger of Allaah has highly recommended the sue of miswaak before the prayer:

ordered them to clean their teeth with Siwak for every prayer."\(^{65}\)

3. BEFORE READING THE GLORIOUS QUR’AAN: It is the Sunnah of the Prophet to use miswaak at all the times and it includes the recitation of the Glorious Qur’aan. There is a hadith narrated ‘Alee that the Messenger of Allah commanded us to use the miswaak and said: “When the slave of Allah stands for praying using miswaak an angel comes and stands behind him and listens his recitation of the Qur’aan and comes closure to him in such a way that the angel puts his mouth on the mouth of the person. So then when recites any verse of the Qur’aan it goes in to the mouth the angel, therefore, clean your mouth for recitation of the Qur’aan. “\(^{66}\)

4. WHILE ENTERING THE HOUSE: It is the Sunnah of the Prophet to use miswaak while entering the house.

Miqdam b. Shuraih narrated it from his father who said: I asked ‘Aisha what Allah’s Apostle (may peace be upon him) did first when he entered his house, and she replied: He used tooth-stick (first of all).\(^{67}\)

5. AFTER GETTING UP FROM THE SLEEP: Whenever the Prophet got up from his sleep he used miswaak to clean his mouth.

Narated Hudhaifa: Whenever the Prophet got up at night; he used to clean his mouth with Siwak.\(^{68}\)

6. WHILE FASTING: There is no harm in using miswaak while fasting. The above hadith in which the Messenger of Allah has mentioned about using miswaak before ablution is general for all fasting and non-fasting people. Imaam al-Bukhari has mentioned in the Book of Fasting: CHAPTER: Dry or green siwak for the fasting person. Narrated ‘Amir bin Rabi’a: “I saw the Prophet cleaning his teeth with siwak while he was fasting so many times as I can’t count.”\(^{89}\)

When one uses a toothbrush, it is Sunnah to clean it afterwards:

‘Aishah reported, “When the Prophet, ( ) used his toothbrush, he would give it to me. I would wash it, use it, wash it again and give it back to him.”\(^{90}\)

WIPIING OVER THE SHOES AND THE SOCKS

HADEETH TWENTY-ONE:\(^{91}\)

\(21\) Narrated ‘Urwa bin Al-Mugheera: My father said, “Once I was in the company of the Prophet ( ) on a journey and I dashed to take off his Khuffs. He ordered me to leave them as he had put them after performing ablution. So he passed wet hands on them.”

EXPLANATION OF 'UMDATUL-AHKAM

tribe. He urinated... He then performed ablution and wiped over his socks.92

EXPLANATION OF HADEETHS 21-22:

WIPING OVER THE SHOES AND THE SOCKS93

Hummam reported: Jarir urinated, then performed ablution, and wiped over the socks. It was said to him: Do you do like this? He said: Yes, I saw that the Messenger of Allah () urinated, then performed ablution and then wiped over his shoes. A'mash said: Ibrahim had observed that this hadith was a surprise for them (the people) because Jarir had embraced Islam after the revelation of Surat al-Maidah.94

Hudhaifa reported: I was with the Apostle of Allah () when he came to the dumping ground of filth belonging to a particular tribe. He urinated while standing, and I went aside. He (the Holy Prophet) asked me to come near him and I went so near to him that I stood behind his heels. He then performed ablution and wiped over his socks.95

Sulaiman Ibn Buraida narrated it from his father that the Apostle of Allah () offered prayers with one ablution on the day of the Conquest (of Mecca) and wiped over the socks. 'Umar said to him: You have today done something that you have not been accustomed to before. He ( ) said: O 'Umar, I have done that on purpose.96

WHAT IS THE CONDITION OF WIPING OVER THE SOCKS

The wiping over the socks is only permissible if they are worn after having complete ablution.

The son of Mughirah b. Shu'bah reported: The Messenger of Allah () went out for relieving himself. Mughirah went with him carrying a jug full of water. When he (the Holy Prophet) came back after relieving himself, he poured water over him and he performed ablution and wiped over his socks.97

Another version has... He washed his forearms, wiped over his head. I then bent down to take off his socks. But he said: Leave them, for my feet were clean when I put them in, and he only wiped over them.98

It is permissible only if it is due to urination or defecation and not due to intercourse or wet dream or due to menses or bleeding at the time of birth.

Wiping over the socks is not permitted if a person had sexual intercourse with his wife or had wet dream. It is only permissible if a person has broken his ablution due to urination or defecation. Wiping over the socks is not permitted during menses or bleeding at the time of child's birth, because it is counted in the category of Janaabah.99

Safwaan Ibn Assaal reported: the Messenger of Allah would command us not to take off our socks because of seminal emission and not to do so because of easing ourselves, urinating, and sleeping.100

HOW WIPING OVER THE SHOES AND SOCKS SHOULD BE DONE

93 Proof of its legitimacy:
Wiping over the socks is part of the sunnah. An-Nawawi states, "All those who qualify for ijma' (consensus) agree that it is allowed to wipe over the socks--during travelling or at home, if needed or not--even a woman who stays at home or a handicapped person who cannot walk can do so. The Shi'ah and Khawarij reject it, but their rejection is not valid. Says Ibn Hajr in Fath al-Bari, "All of the preservers (of hadith) are of the opinion that wiping over the socks has come through a continuous transmission. Some have collected all of its narrations (from among the companions), and its number exceeds eighty. This includes hadith from the ten peopole who were promised Paradise." The strongest hadith on this point has been related by Ahmad, al-Bukhari, Muslim, Abu Dowud and at-Tirmidhi on the authority of Hammam anNakha'i who said, "Jarir ibn 'Abdullah urinated, performed ablution and wiped over his socks." It was said to him, "You do that and you have urinated?" He said, "Yes, I saw the Messenger of Allah, upon whom be peace, urinate and then do likewise." Said Ibrahim, "They were amazed at that hadith, because Jarir had embraced Islam after surah al-Ma'idah was revealed (10 AH).

94 One of its verses calls for washing one's feet. This hadith helps us understand the verse by confining it to one who is not wearing socks. This constitutes a particular case, and the person who wears socks can just wipe over them.

99 Defilement due to sexual intercourse or wet dream or bleeding every month or at child's birth is known as Janaabah. One cannot be ritually pure unless he/she performs ghusl (ritual bath.)
A day and a night for a resident and three days and three nights for the traveler.

TIME LIMIT FOR WIPING OVER THE SHOES AND SOCKS

It is the Sunnah that a residence can wipe over his shoes and socks for a day and night and a traveler can wipe over them for three days and three nights.

Shurah b. Hani said: I came to ‘Aishah to ask her about wiping over the socks. She said: You better ask (‘Ali) son of Abu Talib for he used to travel with Allah’s Messenger ( ). We asked him and he said: The Messenger of Allah ( ) stipulated (the upper limit) of three days and three nights for a traveler and one day and one night for the resident.

WHAT INVALIDATES THE WIPING

The following invalidates the wiping:
1. The end of the permissible time period for wiping.
2. Post-sex impurity.
3. Removal of the socks. If (i) or (iii) occurs while the person was in a state of purity, he need only wash his feet.

There are two weak narrations where it is mentioned that wiping over the upper part and lower part should be done. And another version describes that one should go over the upper part of the foot with wet fingers up to the shanks. The first hadith is found in Sunan Abu Dawud see ‘AWNUL M’ABOOD: Vol. 1, pp. 191-6. The second hadith is found in Sunan Ibn-Majuh: SUNAN IBN-I-MAJAH: Vol. 1, No. 551, and it is declared weak due to ‘Iba’eyah. He is a very weak narrator. See Da’ef Sunan Ibn Maajah: no. 121.

THE FLUID OR LIQUID THAT COMES OUT OF THE SEXUAL ORGANS:

There are three kinds fluids or liquids that come out of the sexual organ of the male and the female. Namely, Manee (semen), Mazee (prostatic fluid) and wadi (fluid that comes out before or after urination).

Another form of liquid that comes out of the female only, namely, blood during menses, and during the birth of the child. The details of this liquid will be discussed later when I will be discussing about the impurity of the blood.

Al-Mazee: See its definition.

Al-Manee:

Manee (semen) is a thick fluid that comes out after cohabitation. It is mainly released after sexual intercourse or due to wet dreams.

In case seminal emission (i.e. release of the manee), one should take a bath, ablution is not sufficient. This the view agreed upon by As-Shafi’ee, Ahmad, Abu Hanifah, and all other jurists.

Some scholars say that sperm is impure, but apparently it is pure, for it is only recommended to wash it off if it is still wet, and to scratch it off if it is dry.

 Said ‘Aishah, “I used to scratch the sperm off the Messenger of Allah's clothes if it was dry, and wash it off if it was still wet.” (This is related by ad-Daraqutni, Abu ‘Awanah and Al-Bazzar). It is also related that Ibn ‘Abbas said, “I asked the Messenger of Allah about sperm on clothes. He said, 'It is the same as mucus and spittle. It is sufficient to rub the area with a rag or cloth.'”
Mazee (prostatic fluid) comes out in watery form before cohabitation by kissing and hugging and other factors that precede intercourse. This is a white watery-like sticky fluid that flows from the sexual organs because of thinking about sexual intercourse or foreplay, and so on. The person is usually not aware of when exactly it is secreted. It comes from both the male and the female sexual organs, although the amount from the latter is usually more than the former's.

The tradition shows that ablution is sufficient if one has prostatic fluid. Washing is not necessary. There is a difference between the Arabic words Mazee (prostatic fluid) and Manee (semen). The former comes out in watery form before copulation and later after copulation in thick form. In case of the former, ablution is necessary and in case of the latter bath is obligatory.

There are many other narrations in which it is mentioned that 'Ali said, "I used to suffer from excessive amounts of Mazee. I used to make lots of ghusl (bath) because of it and that cracked my back. So I mentioned this to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), or someone else mentioned to him and he said, Do not do so. When you find prostatic fluid, wash your penis and perform ablution as you do for prayer, but when have seminal emission, you should take bath."

1. Scholars are agreed that it is impure and it should be washed wherever its spots are to be seen before performing ablution.

2. If it gets on the body, it is obligatory to wash it off.

3. If it gets on the clothes, it suffices to sprinkle the area with water, as it is very hard to be completely protected from this impurity, especially for the young, single person.

4. The ablution is nullified due to Mazee because it has released from the penis.

5. The penis also should be washed.

---

6. One should wash testicles also.

The Prophet said: "You should wash your private parts and testicles because of it and perform ablution as you do for prayer."

7. One can sprinkle water after ablution if the Mazee smears the clothes.

Sahl ibn Hunaif said, "I used to suffer from excessive amounts of Mazee. I used to make lots of ghusl because of it. So I mentioned this to the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), and he said, 'It is sufficient to take a handful of water and sprinkle it over your clothes wherever the fluid appears.'"

8. Mazee should be washed only with water as it is in the hadith. Some scholars say one can also use stones to clean it.

9. Although 'Ali being the companion of the Prophet, did not know this issue, as it is in hadith mentioned above. He did not know what is to be done in such situation, therefore, he used to make bath instead of ablution. Therefore, most certainly other then the sahabah also may not know many such issues. Hence it is wrong to say, "My Imam knows everything. He cannot make mistakes."

10. One may feel shy to discuss personal matters with elders, due to their respect.

11. One can appoint someone else to discuss such issue with scholars, instead of discussing directly to them.

12. The hadith also teaches a lesson that one should be behave in a good manner with relative of the spouse.

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETH 24:

According to An-Nawawee it is one of those ahaadeeth, which lay down the basic principles of Islamic Shari’ah. Here we have been told not to go after doubts, but to hold things valid unless there is some concrete evidence against it. Islam does not make a man whimsical but makes him a man of trust and confidence.

1. One must not break his prayer mainly based on doubts.
2. One must not consider invalidity of his ablution based on doubts. 112
3. Satan creates the doubts in the minds of the people. 113
4. The prayer will be considered invalid if the ablution breaks before finishing the prayer, just before the salutation: 114
   The prayer said to be incomplete if it is finished before the Tasleem (salutation). It is clearly mentioned in the hadeeth that the prayer starts with Takbeer and ends with Tasleem, if it is offered with complete purification, otherwise the prayer is considered to be incomplete if the ablution breaks before the tasleem: 115
5. What to do if the ablution breaks during the prayer:

HADEETH TWENTY-FIVE

Narrated Umme Qais bint Mihsin that she took one of her sons, who had not started eating (ordinary food) to Allaah’s Messenger ( ) who took him and made him sit in his lap. The child urinated on the garment of the Prophet ( ) so he asked for water and poured it over the soiled area and did not wash it. 117

Narated ‘Aa’isha the mother of faithful believers: A child was brought to Allaah’s Messenger ( ) and it urinated on the garment of the Prophet ( ) The Prophet ( ) asked for water and poured it over the soiled place. 118

EXPLANATION OF HADEETH NO. 25:

1. The companions of the Prophet ( ) used to bring their children to him to get his blessings.

A’isha, the wife of the Apostle ( ) said: Babies were brought to the Messenger of Allah ( ) and he blessed them, and after having chewed (something, e.g. dates or any other sweet thing) he

112 Imam Al-Bukhary has mentioned in his Sahih Al-Bukhari: Vol. 1, chapter: 4, p. 102: ‘One should not repeat ablution if in doubt unless and until he is convinced that he has lost his ablution by passing the wind.”
113 Reported Ibn ‘Abbaas the Messenger of Allaah said: “Satan comes to one of you in Salah and blows air in his bottom, so he imagines that he has released air yet he did not. So if he gets that feeling he should not leave his prayer unless he hears the sound of the air or smells its odour.” [This hadeeth is collected in Al-Bazaaraaz. See MAJMA’-ZAWAA’ID: 1/242, HE SAID: At-Tabrancee collected it in Al-Kaabeer and Al-Bazaaraaz similarly, and he further said: its narrators are all true’. It is declared as hasan. See new edition of Subulus Salaam by Muhammad Subhee: p.364.] As-Sunan Al-Kubraa lil Bayhaqee: 2/254. As-Sunan wal M’aarifah: 11/236.
114 For the details hadeeth no: 2 of this book.

rubbed there with their soft palates. A baby was brought to him and he passed water over him (over his garment), so he asked water to be brought and sprinkled it, but he did not wash it.

2. The urine of a male baby that eats food should be washed because it is impure. Sprinkling is sufficient as long as the Prophet said: “Water is sprinkled on it after the urine of the male baby and it is washed after the urine of a female baby.”

Abu Samih reported: “Wash the garment soiled with the urine of female child and sprinkle water on the place soiled with the urine of the male child.”

4. WHY THERE IS A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN URINE OF A BOY AND URINE OF A GIRL? Imaam Ash-Shafi’ee has mentioned the reason.

Abu Al-Hasan said: “I asked Imam Ash-Shafi’ee about the hadeeth mentioned above. He replied, “It is because the urine of the lad is from water and clay while the urine of the lass is from the flesh and blood.” Then he asked me, “Have you understood?” He said, “No.” He (Ash-Shafi’ee) said: “Verily, Allaah created Adam from water and clay and Eve was created from his small rib. Thus a lad’s urine became from water and clay and urine of lass became from flesh and blood.” The narrator said: Imam Ash-Shafi’ee again asked me, “Did you understand? I replied in the affirmative. He prayed for me saying: May Allaah make it useful for you.

Perhaps the reason for this exemption to the male baby’s urine is that people have a tendency to carry their male babies around, and it would have been difficult to clean the clothes after their frequent urinations.

HADEETH TWENTY-SIX:

26-221 Narrated Anas bin Maalik: A Bedouin came and passed urine in one corner of the mosque. The people shouted at him but the Prophet (ﷺ) stopped them till he finished urinating. The Prophet (ﷺ) ordered them to spill a bucket of water over that place and they did so.

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADEETH NO. 26:

1. The name of the Bedouin is Zul Khwaishrah al-Yamaanee. He was from the county side hence was an uncultured rustic person. He came to the Prophet to learn Islam. Therefore, he did not know the manners of the mosque. Therefore, it is wrong to judge about sahabah saying that they were uncultured. The Prophet instructed him with kindness and treated with consideration.

2. The Sahabah were well cultured hence they did not like such thing in the mosque. They had great respect of the mosque. Hence, although the Messenger of Allaah was present amongst them they could not tolerate such behaviour and they rushed towards him to bit him. They shouted at him because they had great respect for the mosque.

3. The Messenger of Allaah stopped Sahaabah from shouting at the man, due many reasons.

(i). The man would get scared of them and would stop urination that could cause much harm to him.

(ii). The man could run in the same status and would impure the mosque with his urine. It would become very difficult to clean the mosque afterwards.

SUBULUS-SALAAM: Vol. 1, P. 158.

Unfortunately, there are people who live amongst us and are well cultured but they do not know the manners of the mosque. What is allowed and what is not, they do not know. May Allaah guide all of us to the Kitaab and Sunnah, aameen.
(iii). The Prophet explained the sahabah that how one can teach Islamic manners to those who do not know, specially, those who live in the countryside.

(iv). The Prophet taught the man manners of the mosque, that it is meant for three things: Praying, Recitation of the Quraan and teaching it and remembrance of Allaah, like 'Etikaaf, etc.

4. It is agreed upon by all the scholars that the urine of the human being is impure and it should be cleaned wherever it is found with water.

5. Anything impure that falls on the earth, should be washed with water.

6. It is sufficient to wash the earth, without digging it or removing that part of earth and throw it away.

7. The earth pure when it becomes dry. If the impurity got dried due to heat of the Sun or wind and nothing impure is seen then the earth is considered pure. One can offer prayer on that place.

Narrated Abu Hurayrah: The Prophet said, "A man saw a dog eating mud from (the severity of) thirst. So, that man took a shoe (and filled it) with water and kept on pouring the water for the dog till it quenched its thirst. So Allah approved of his deed and made him to enter Paradise."

And narrated Hamza bin 'Abdullah: My father said. "During the lifetime of Allah's Apostle, the dogs used to urinate, and pass through the mosques (come and go), nevertheless they never used to sprinkle water on it (urine of the dog.)"

28- Narrated Abu Hurayrah: I heard the Prophet saying. "Five practices are characteristics of the Fitra: circumcision, shaving the pubic hair, cutting the moustaches short, clipping the nails, and depilating the hair of the armpits."

EXPLANATION OF HADEETH NO. 27:

The above hadeeth has many fiqh issues to be discussed, like 1: 'Fitrah' and its meaning, 2: Are the characteristics, limited to five or more, 3: Circumcision, 4: Shaving the pubic hair, 5: Depilating the hair of the armpits, 6: clipping the nails, and 7: Cutting the moustaches short, 8: Some other characteristics.

1. 'FITRAH AND ITS MEANING:

The explanation of the word 'FITRAH'

'Fitrah' as 'Sunnah'

128 Narrated Abu Huraira: A Bedouin stood up and started making water in the mosque. The people caught him but the Prophet ordered them to leave him and to pour a bucket or a tumbler of water over the place where he had passed the urine. The Prophet then said, "You have been sent to make things easy and not to make them difficult." SAHIH AL-BUKHARI: Volume 1, Book 4, Number 219.

127 Anas b. Malik reported: While we were in the mosque with Allah's Messenger (may peace be upon him), a desert Arab came and stood up and began to urinate in the mosque. The Companions of Allah's Messenger (may peace be upon him) said: Stop, stop, but the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said: Don't interrupt him; leave him alone. Then, when he finished urinating, Allah's Messenger (may peace be upon him) called him and said to him: These mosques are not the places meant for urine and filth, but are only for the remembrance of Allah, prayer and the recitation of the Qura'an, or Allah's Messenger said something like that. He (the narrator) said that he (the Holy Prophet) then gave orders to one of the people who brought a bucket of water and poured it over. SAHIH MUSLIM: Numbers: 357-9.

Imam Al-Khattaabee said in M'aalimus Sunan: “Many scholars have explained ‘Al-Fitrah’ in this hadeeth as ‘Sunnah’. It stands for the Sunnah of the Apostles of Allah, and we are commanded to follow them: Allaah has mentioned in the Qur’aan: “Those were the (prophets) who received Allah’s guidance: follow the guidance they received; say: ...”

Ibraaheem (‘alayhissalaam) was the first person who received this command, as Allaah has informed in the Qur’aan: “And remember that Abraham was tried by his Lord with certain commands, which he fulfilled: HE said: "I will make you an Imam to the Nations..."

Ibn ‘Abbaas said: Allaah commanded him ten things, then he counted them and when he fulfilled them all, Allaah said to him I will make you Imaam of the Nation, so that you should be followed, and your sunnah should be followed. Indeed this Ummah is also commanded to follow Ibraaheem (‘Alayhissalaam). Allah has mentioned in the Qur’aan: “Then We have inspired you the (message), "Follow the ways of Abraham the True in Faith, and he joined not gods with Allah.”

It can be also said as ‘sunnah’ because in a hadeeth transmitted by Aboo ‘Awaana, there is the word Sunnah instead of fitrah.

‘Fitrah as Islam’

Some of the commentators have explained this word by the religion of Islam, because it is given to man by the same Lord Who has created nature and thus there is a very close affinity between the two. There is a hadeeth collected by Imam Al-Bukhari and Imaam Muslim in their books in which the word ‘Fitrah’ is translated as Islam:

130 Sooratul-An’aaam: ch. 6, v. 90.
133 Vol. 1, pp. 44-5, no. 53.
135 It has, “Ten are amongst the Sunnah.” Aboo ‘Awaana: v. 1, p. 163, no. 472.

Ten are the acts according to fitrah:

1. Clipping the moustache,
Letting the beard grow,
3. Using the tooth-stick,
4. Snuffing water in the nose,
5. Cutting the nails,
6. Washing the finger joints,
7. Plucking the hair under the armpits,
8. Shaving the pubes and
9. Cleaning one's private parts with water.
10. Rinsing the mouth.

3: CIRCUMCISION AND ITS RULING:

What is Khitaan or Circumcision?

It is an old form of minor operation in which the foreskin of the male sexual organ is cut away. For women, it involves cutting the outer portion of the clitoris.

“The hygienic value of circumcision has today been generally conceded, and some physicians recommended the operation as a routine measure for all male infants. This prevents dirt from getting on one's penis, and also makes it easy to keep it clean. It is part of the routine of bathing an uncircumcised boy to draw back the foreskin and sponge the head of the penis, for general cleanliness and also to remove pasty white secretion called smegma, which accumulates under the foreskin and may lead to local irritation unless it is regularly cleansed. Whenever a new born is found to have a foreskin so long or so tight it will be difficult to draw it back for washing or it will interfere with urination, the physician recommends circumcision.” Medical reports proved that people who circumcise never get penis cancer.

Is it compulsory or not?

Those who say it is not compulsory:

Some scholars like Imam Al-Hasan Al-Basree, Imaam Aboo Haneefah and some Hanbalee scholars say that it is not compulsory, but it is recommended sunnah based on the following evidence:

A. The Prophet said, “The circumcision is sunnah for man.”

B. They say that there are some narrations in which non-compulsory issues are mentioned and circumcision is one of them, as it is clear from the above hadeeth collected by Muslim. Therefore, it is incorrect to assert that some part of one narration is compulsory whereas another part of it is not. They say that it has either to be compulsory in its entirety, or non-compulsory in its entirety.

C. According to Imaam Al-Hasan Al-Basree, that many people belonging to different religions would convert to Islam at the time of Prophet but he would never check whether or not they had gone through the procedure of circumcision. If they were compulsory, then he would have checked it.

Those who say it is compulsory:

Some scholars like Imam Maalik, Ash-Shaafiee, Imam Ahmad, Imam Rabee’ah, Imam Al-Awzaa’ee, Imam Yahyh Ibn Sad Al-Ansaaree, etc. say that it is compulsory. According to Imam Maalik, a man without circumcision cannot be an Imaam leading congregational prayers, and his witness is not to be accepted. Their evidences are as follows:

A. The Messenger of Allaah commanded the new Muslim to go under the procedure of circumcision:

“Uthaym Ibn Kulayb reported from his father on the authority of his grandfather Kulayb that he came to the Prophet and said: I have embraced Islam. The Prophet said to him, Remove from yourself the hair that grew during the period of unbelief,” saying, shave them.” He further said that another person, other than the grandfather of Kulayb reported to him that the Prophet said to a man who accompanied him, Remove from yourself the hair that grew during the period of unbelief and get yourself circumcised.144

B. It is the Sunnah of Prophet Ibraaheem and we are commanded to follow him:

Allah has mentioned in the Qur’aan: “Then We have inspired you the (message), "Follow the ways of Abraham the True in Faith, and he joined not gods with Allah."”145

C. Prophet Ibraaheem was ordered to go under this procedure when he eighty years old:

Abu Hurairah reported that the Messenger of Allah said, "Ibraaheem circumcised himself after he was eighty years old." 146

D. Obligatory and non-obligatory matters can be mentioned in one hadeeth or verse:

Allaah says in the Qur’aan:

It is He Who produces gardens, with trellises and without, and dates, and tilth with produce of all kinds, and olives and pomegranates, similar (in kind) and different (in variety): eat of their fruit in their season, but render the dues that are proper on the day that the harvest is gathered. But waste not by excess: for Allah loveth not the wasters. 147

In the above verse Allaah says: eat of their fruit in their season, but render the dues that are proper on the day that the harvest is gathered. The first part ‘eating the fruit’ is not compulsory and the second part ‘paying the dues’ is compulsory. Therefore, it is wrong to say that it has to be entirely obligatory or entirely non-obligatory.

Circumcision of female:

Hafiz Ibn Hajar has mentioned in FATHUL BAAREE148, “That it was practiced in ‘Arabia at the advent of Islam. It is disputed amongst the scholars. Some Shaafiiee scholars hold that circumcision of girls is obligatory, but others think it is only recommended. Imaam ‘Ataa and some Hambalee scholars and some Maalikee scholars also hold it is obligatory. Imam Aboo Haneefah, says that it is recommended. According to Imam Ahmad, circumcision of women is recommended but it is obligatory on men.”149

When is the right time for circumcision?

As it is the Sunnah of all the Prophets and the sunnah of the Prophet, and every act of Islam is implemented on every Muslim, when one reach the age of puberty. Therefore, age of puberty is the right time for circumcision.

Narrated Abu Hurayrah: Allah’s Apostle said "The Prophet) Abraham circumcised himself after he had passed the age of eighty years and he circumcised himself with an adze." 148

Narrated Said bin Jubair: Ibn ‘Abbas was asked, “How old were you when the Prophet died?” He replied, “At that time I had been circumcised.” At that time, people did not circumcise the boys till they attained the age of puberty. Sa’id bin Jubair said, “Ibn ‘Abbas said, ‘When the Prophet died, I had already been circumcised.’”150

But if one could not do it due to any reason then even at the age of eighty, one must do it. As it is mentioned above that Prophet Ibraaheem was ordered to go under this procedure at the age of eighty.

4: SHAVING PUBIC HAIRS AND PULLING OUT UNDERARM HAIRS:

They are two Sunan acts. If the hair is only trimmed or pulled out, it will suffice. Plucking the hair under the armpits does not mean that these should necessarily be uprooted. Their shaving can also serve the purpose since the aim is to make the body clean and remove impurities from it. According to majority of the scholars hair around anus should also be removed, because, the word ‘*aanaah’ it is a common word which is used for both penis and anus in the hadith.

WOMEN SHOULD ALSO SHAVE IT:

Narrated Jabir bin Abdullah: While we were returning from a Ghazwa (Holy Battle) with the Prophet, I started driving my camel fast, as it was a lazy camel. A rider came behind me and pricked my camel with a spear he had with him, and then my camel started running as fast as the best camel you may see. Behold! The rider was the Prophet himself. He said, "What makes you in such a hurry?" I replied, "I am newly married." He said, "Did you marry a virgin or a matron?" I replied, "A matron." He said, "Why didn't you marry a young girl so that you may play with her and she with you?" When we were about to enter (Medina), the Prophet said, "Wait so that you may enter (Medina) at night so that the lady of unkempt hair may comb her hair and the one whose husband has been absent may shave her pubic region."

What is the time limit of shaving?

It is preferred to cut the pubic hairs, and pluck out the underarm hairs on a weekly basis, a practice which is most hygienic. If some unnecessary hair is left on the body for a longer period of time, it may disturb the person and may cause some kind of bacterial disease. One may leave this action for forty days, but no longer.

HADEETH:

Anas reported: A time limit has been prescribed for us for clipping the moustache, cutting the nails, plucking hair under the armpits, shaving the pubes, that it should not be neglected far more than forty nights.

Imaam Ibn Hazm may Allaah have mercy upon him said: “It is the consensus of the Muslim scholars that it is obligatory to trim the moustache and to grow beard.”

Imaam Ibn Abdil Bar and Imaam Ibn Taymiyyah said: “It is prohibited to shave the beard.”

Imaam Ibn Abdil Bar further said: “Only those people who do not have sexual desire shave their beards. They are the ones who imitate the women. One must know that shaving the beard changes the face of a young man to the face of a young woman, and the face of an old man to the face of an old woman.

There is a severe warning mentioned in the hadeeth collected At-Tabraanee in Al-Kabeer: (10977): reported Ibn ‘Abbaas the Messenger of Allaah said: “The one who shaves his beard will not get anything from Allaah (i.e. he will be punished and will not have any mercy of Allaah).”

Many scholars said that the Arabic word ‘al-muthla’ means: shaving the beard or trimming, or dying black.

Many scholars said that growing moustache is the practice of Fire-Worshippers, and the people of Prophet Loot. The Prophet has said that: “Whoever imitates others is one of them.”

Conclusion:

The Sunnah of the Messenger of Allaah is to trim the moustache and to grow the beard. There is not a single authentic hadeeth to be found to prove that it is allowed to trim the beard. Whereas it is reported from the acts of Sahabah in which it is mentioned that during the season of Hajj they would trim their beard in such a way that whatever was longer than one hold of a hand was cut. But there is no report as such about the Prophet. It is my sincere advice to all Muslim brothers that they should let their beards to grow and should not trim because none of us knows the reason why the Sahabah did so as far as our part is concerned then we should what the Prophet has said and has done. May Allaah guide all of us to follow the Sunnah of the Prophet. Aameen.

When it should be done?

One may leave this action for forty days, but no longer.

10: Oiling and combing one’s hair

Abu Hurayrah reported the Prophet, upon whom be peace, as saying, "Whoever has hair should honour it."161

Said 'Ata ibn Yasar, "A man came to the Prophet with unkempt hair and an untidy beard. The Prophet pointed to him, as if ordering him to straighten his hair and beard. He did so and returned. Thereupon the Prophet observed, 'Is that not better than one of you coming with his hair unkempt, as if he were a devil'?"162

Abu Qatadah related that he had a great amount of hair. He asked the Prophet, "O Messenger of Allah, I have lots of hair. Should I comb it?" He answered, "Yes ... and honor it." Abu Qatadah used to oil it twice a day due to the Prophet's words, "... and honor it."163

11: How much long hair can one have?

Narrated Anas: The head-hair of the Prophet used to hang down to his shoulders.164

Narrated Al-Bara': I did not see anybody in a red cloak looking more handsome than the Prophet Narrated Malik: The hair of the Prophet used to hang near his shoulders. Narrated Shu'ba: The hair of the Prophet used to hang down to the earlobes.165

12: It is permissible to dye one’s hair:

164 SAHIH AL-BUKHARI: Volume 7, Book 72, Number 788.
165 SAHIH AL-BUKHARI: Volume 7, Book 72, Number 790 a and b.
Narrated Muhammad bin Sirin: I asked Anas, "Did the Prophet dye his hair?" Anas replied, "The Prophet did not have except a few grey hairs." 166

Narrated Thabit: Anas was asked whether the Prophet used a hair dye or not. Anas replied, "The Prophet had not enough grey hair to dye. I could even count the white grey hairs oil his beard ill would." 167

Narrated Abu Huraira: The Prophet said, "Jews and Christians do not dye their hair so you should do the opposite of what they do." 168

Cutting one's hair off is permissible, and so is letting it grow if one honors it. Ibn 'Umar narrated that the Prophet, upon whom be peace, said, "Shave it all or leave it all." 169

To shave part of it and leave part of it is greatly disliked. Nafa' related from Ibn 'Umar that the Messenger of Allah prohibited qiza'. Nafa' asked, "What is qiza'?" He said, "It is to shave off part of the hair of a youth and to leave part." 170

13: Leaving grey hairs in place

This applies to both men and women. 'Amr ibn Shu'aib related on the authority of his father from his grandfather that the Prophet said, "Do not pluck the grey hairs as they are a Muslim's light. Never a Muslim grows grey in Islam except that Allah writes for him, due to that, a good deed. And he raises him a degree. And he erases for him, due to that, one of his sins." 171

And Anas said, "We used to hate that a man should pluck out his white hairs from his head or beard." 172

14: Changing the color of grey hair by using henna, red dye, yellow dye, and so on

15: To use musk and other types of perfume

These are pleasing to the soul and beautify the atmosphere. Anas reported the Messenger of Allah as saying, "Among the things of this world, I love women and perfume, and the coolness of my eyes is prayer." 177

Abu Hurairah reported that the Messenger of Allah said, "If someone offers perfume, do not reject it, for it is light to carry and has a sweet scent." 178

Abu Sa'eed reported that the Prophet said about musk, "It is the best of perfumes." 179

Nafa' narrated that the Prophet said about musk, "It is the best of perfumes." 179

Nafa' reported that Ibn 'Umar used to burn and inhale a branch called aluwah that has a nice smell. He also used camphor. He used to say, "This is the way the Messenger of Allah inhaled such scents (that is, by burning them.)"¹⁸⁰

CHAPTER: GHUSL AL-JANABAH DUE TO IMPURITY

HADEETH TWENTY-EIGHT

28- 283  عن أبي هريرة أن النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم نافذ في بعض طرقات النافذة وهو جالس، فدعاه فقام فقال: إن أبت قالت: يا أبا هريرة قالت جالسا جالسا كتبت أن أجلس وأنا على غير طهارة فقال: (سنحان الله إن المسلم لا يجلس.)¹⁸¹

29- Narrated Aboo Hurayrah: The Prophet (r) came across me in one of the streets of Medeena and at that time I was Junub. So I slipped away from him and went to take a bath. On my return the Prophet (r) said, "O Aboo Hurayrah! Where have you been?" I replied, "I was Junub, so I disliked to sit in your company." The Prophet (r) said, "Subhaan Allaah! A believer never becomes impure."¹⁸²

EXPLANATION of the above hadeeth: (28).

A: ‘Subhaan Allaah’: It means to honour Allaah from all what (unsuitable things) is ascribed to Him. Allaah is pure from every error.

B: Abu Hurayrah although being a great companion of the Prophet (r) thought that it is not permissible to sit in religious gathering in this state. Hence, the Prophet (r) expressed the sign of surprise upon his belief, and replied that the believer is not impure. Therefore, one must not miss the religious gathering merely because he is in the state of Janabah. He could miss many important lessons, if he does so, by not attending such important gathering. It is recommended to be pure, neat, clean and tidy while sitting in this gathering but it is not must. Gaining of Islamic knowledge is much more important than that.¹⁸³

Is the believer considered to be impure due seminal emission?

No, the believer is pure all the time. The soul of man is purified by belief in Allaah and His Prophets and other articles of faith and taking to the path of righteousness and religious piety. The seminal emission does not pollute him. He is, even in this state, considered to be pure because his soul is purified by his belief in Islam. He is barred from prayer and recitation of the Glorious Quraan and entering into the mosque simply to make him conscious of the immeasurably high spiritual value of these acts of devotion to Allaah.

Is the disbeliever considered to be impure?

Imaam Ash-Shuakaanee has said in his book ‘NAYLUL AWTAAR: VOL. 1, PP. 20-21. “ Some scholars considered non-believer impure based on the statement of the Prophet (r) “the believer”, and it is mentioned in AL-BAHR, that it is the opinion of some scholars namely, Al-Hadi, Al-Qasim and An-Nasir, Imam Maalik, etc: all of them said that the non-believer is impure. Their evidence is the verse of the Glorious Quraan (9: 28.) in which the polytheists have been declared as unclean. The majority of the scholars replied that the verse of the Glorious Quraan (9: 28.) in which the polytheists have been declared as unclean is due to their evil beliefs and practices. Their evidence is that Allaah ahs allowed Muslims to women from the people of the Books, hence one may come in contact with the sweat of the these women while having sexual intercourse. If it would have been considered impure then it would have been mentioned in the hadeeth. There is no such hadeeth that speaks about the impurity of the sweat of the people of scriptures. Therefore, it is not impure.

No, the non-believer is not impure.¹⁸⁴ So far as man as a human being is concerned no person is defiled, not even a non-believer, because the Lord has created man in the best form. (95: 4.), and then he lowered himself by his own misdeeds. Man as such is the recipient of the special favours of the Lord. the Glorious Quraan says: “And surely We have honoured the children of Aadam, and we carry them in the land and the sea, and We provide them with good things and We have made them to excel highly most of the whom We have created”. (27: 70.)¹⁸⁵

C: If any scholar or a teacher saw anything against Islam done by his student or misunderstood something then he should correct him and must inform the right matter. As the Prophet did when he saw that Abu Hurayrah has developed wrong concept regarding a person in the state of Janabah.

D: It is understood from the hadeeth that one can delay the ritual bath (Ghuslul Janabah) due to any important reason, and can go out of his house for any personal reason, as did Abu Hurayrah. The Prophet did not stop him from doing so.

E: There is not a single hadeeth that says that only alive Muslim is considered pure and dead is not. According to the general statement of the Prophet (r), ‘The Believer is not impure’ is clear that it is meant for both alive and dead. If it is not for both then, how can we say that it is particular for alive and it is not for dead. Imaam Al-Bukhari has reported Ibn ‘Abbaas as saying, “A Muslim never becomes impure whether dead or alive.”

Imaam Al-Haakim has collected a hadeeth in which the Prophet (r) has said, “Do not consider your dead impure, because the Muslim never become impure whether dead or alive”.

F: What is permissible to do for a person who is in the state of impurities:

(I). The sweat of the Junub is pure, whether he is without ablution or Junub, or in the menses and the saliva is also pure.

(II). A Junub person can go out and walk in the market or anywhere else.

(III). Imam Al-Bukhari reported that ‘Ata said: A Junub person is allowed to let his blood out (medically), to clip his nails, and also to get his head shaved even without ablution.

G: It is highly recommended that one should be clean and tidy while sitting in the gathering of scholars and in religious discussion, in respect of them. The scholars said that the student of Islam should cut his nails, comb his hair and remove bad smell from his body and clothes. Hence, he should adorn himself in a nice way.

HADEETH TWENTY-NINE

29- عن عائشة انة قالت: كان رسول الله صلی الله علیه وسلم مرأة جنابة فسمعت بارحة جزاء مرض على ألسنةها كأنها قد أروى بشرة تأتيه
وتوسطنا وصوتنا للصلاة ثم اعتناء ثم يحمل بيدس شعرة حتى فأنطلق أخذ فتقا في نفاس

30- Narrated Hishaam bin ‘Ura on the authority of his father: ‘Aaisha said, “Whenever Allaah’s Messenger (r) took the bath of Janaaba, he cleaned his hands and performed ablution like that for prayer and then took a bath and rubbed his hair, till he felt that the whole skin of the head had become wet, then he would pour water thrice and wash the rest of the body.” ‘Aaisha further said, “I and Allaah’s Messenger (r) used to take a bath from a single water container, from which we took water simultaneously.”

HADEETH THIRTY

30- من مهملة قالت: وضعت رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وضوحا جنابية فسمعت بارحة جرية مرض على ألسنته كأنها قد أروى بشرة تأتيه
وتوسطنا وصوتنا للصلاة ثم اعتناء ثم يحمل بيدس شعرة حتى أنطلق أخذ فتقا في نفاس

In the hadeeth above ‘Aisha the mother of Believers may be Allaah pleased with her, describes the Prophet’s ghusl.

(i). Washing hands,

(ii). Performing ablution, same as the one for the prayer,

(iii). Rubbing the wet fingers on the hair,

(iv). Pouring water over the whole body.

(v). It is permissible for both the husband and wife to take bath from one container and at the same time.

(vi). The scholars said that there is no harm for husband and wife to look at he private part of each other, based on the above hadeeth.

(vii). This hadeeth is one the three kinds of hadeeth, namely; Prophet’s statement, Prophet’s action and his approval to sahabah’s actions. The above hadeeth is his action.
and then blowing it out and then washed his face and forearms and poured water over his head and washed his body. Then he shifted from that place and washed his feet. I brought a piece of cloth, but he did not take it and removed the traces of water from his body with his hand.

EXPLANATION FIQH OF HADEETH 30:

In the hadeeth above Maimoonah the mother of Believers may be Allaah be pleased with her, describes the Prophet’s ghusl with few additional things:

(i). Washing hands twice or thrice
(ii). Washing the private parts with the left hand twice or thrice
(iii). Washing hands with sand or anything that cleans the impurity from the hands. Soaps can also be used.
(iv). Performing ablution, same as the one for the prayer,
(v). Pouring water over the whole body.
(vi). Washing the feet again, standing slightly away from the bathing area. It is permissible to do so if area is muddy even if complete ablution was made before
(vii). Towel can be used to wipe water over the body after the bath. It is not compulsory; one may use it or may not.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPHET’S GHUSL AL-JANABAH

(i). Intention in heart (Niyyah),
(ii). Washing hands twice or thrice
(iii). Washing the private parts with the left hand twice or thrice
(iv). Washing hands with sand or anything that cleans the impurity from the hands. Soaps can also be used.
(v). Performing ablution, same as the one for the prayer,
(vi). Pouring water over the whole body.
(vii). Washing the feet again, standing slightly away from the bathing area. It is permissible to do so if area is muddy even if complete ablution was made before
(viii). Towel can be used to wipe water over the body after the bath. It is not compulsory; one may use it or may not.

A’ishah reported that, Allaah’s Messenger (r) used to have seminal emission and then used to sleep without touching water till he would wake after that and take bath.\(^{203}\)

The majority of the scholars hold that performing ablution after intercourse before sleep is only desirable and not necessary. Imam Ibn Qutaibah said: “The conclusion of the two hadeeths, hadeeth of ‘Umar and hadeeth of ‘Aishah, is that the Prophet (r) has done both the ways to show that one is recommended and the other is permissible to sleep without touching water. If anybody wants to wash his private part and make ablution, then he has done a good thing and if anybody wants to sleep without touching water then it is also permissible.

D: Why one should make ablution before going to bed to sleep?

No report is recorded on this issue that why ablution is made before going to sleep. It is narrated that ‘Abdul-Malik bin ‘Abdul-Malik (r) said: “It is because a person may die any time hence it is better to be in state of small taharah i.e. to make ablution.

E: It is recommended that one should wash his private part before sleep.

Narrated ‘Aisha: Whenever the Prophet intended to sleep while he was Junub, he used to wash his private parts and perform ablution like that for the prayer.\(^{207}\)

F: Ablution should be the same as that of prayer.

‘Aishah reported: Whenever the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) intended to sleep after having sexual intercourse, he performed ablution as for the prayer before going to sleep.\(^{207}\)

G: One can eat and drink after having sexual intercourse before ghusl.

‘Aishah reported: Whenever the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) had sexual intercourse and intended to eat or sleep, he performed the ablution of prayer.\(^{208}\)

H: A man can have second time sexual intercourse with his wife if he wants.

Hadeeth Thirty-Three

Narrated 'Aisha: I used to wash the traces of Janabah (semen) from the garments of the Prophet and he used to go for prayers while traces of water were still on it (water spots were still visible).

The version in Sahih Muslim:

(I simply scraped it off and he offered prayer, while putting that on).

EXPLANATION THE FIQH OF HADEETH 33:

A: The above two ahaadeeth speak of two different ways for cleaning the garment that is smeared with semen.
1. It can be cleaned by washing it, as it is in the first hadeeth.
2. It can be rubbed without washing it with water, as it is in the second hadeeth.

B: One can pray in the same garment immediately, after washing it. It is not necessary to wait until it gets dry, as it is in the hadeeth that the Prophet () prayed in the wet garment.

C: The garment becomes pure if it is cleaned by either of the two ways; that is by washing the garment or by rubbing out the semen from it. The Prophet () had offered his prayer in the garment that was washed due to semen and he also offered his prayer in the garment that was rubbed due to semen. He would never pray in the impure garment.

D: It has a good example of the obedient wife who serves her husband by washing the garments for him. May Allaah guide all our Muslim sisters to serve their husbands like the believer women did in the time the Prophet (). Aameen. Unfortunately, now a day we find many husbands find problems with their wives, specially, when they are asked to serve the house or to look after the household activities. Sometimes, they refuse so rudely saying that, ‘I was not doing these insulting labour work when I was at my father’s house. Why don’t you do it yourself or hire a housemaid’. This is very dangerous on her part; may Allaah guide all of us to follow Islam sincerely deep from our hearts. Aameen.

E: There is no harm for a woman to mention the example of her own husband to make issue more clear, if it is required. ‘Aishah has mentioned about the Prophet () as it is in the hadeeth above.

F: Based on the above two narrations scholars have two different opinions about the semen. Some say it is pure and other say it is impure.

220 Please read my book: ‘ISLAMIC FAMILY GUIDELINE’ for further relations between husband and wife. MESSAGE OF ISLAM has published this book in UK.
221 AL-E’ALAAM BI FAWAAYID ‘UMDATIL AHKAAM: VOL. 2, P. 76. It is mentioned that the scholars have six different opinions with regards to the purity and impurity of the semen.
222 Scholars, who are experts in the field of hadeeth, are called ahlul-hadeeth.
223 AL-E’ALAAM BI FAWAAYID ‘UMDATIL AHKAAM: VOL. 2, P. 78.
224 SAHIH MUSLIM: Number 0572.
226 SOORATUL ISRAA: ch. 17, v. 1.
"We have indeed created man in the best of moulds,"

5. As to the first hadeeth where washing the semen from the garment is mentioned, it does not mean that the semen is impure. When we wash spit or mucus from the garment or wall does not mean that it is impure.

6. The scholars who say it is impure are Al-Hanafees and Al-Maalikees. Their argument is that if semen was not considered impure then why she had to wash it. They say that it is impure because it comes out of the penis from where the urine comes and the blood comes. Therefore, it is impure as urine and blood. They also that scrapping the semen or rubbing it does not mean that it is pure, because rubbing impurities from the bottom of the shoes does not came the impurity pure. Similarly, scrapping or rubbing does not make semen pure.

CONCLUSION:

The semen is pure. It is cleaned from the body or the garment in two ways:

(1). If is wet then it should cleaned by washing with the water;
(2). If it is dry then it can be cleaned by rubbing or scrapping.
(3). ‘Aishah has reported that she would scrap the semen from the garment of the Prophet () while he was in the prayer.

The above hadeeth is strong enough to prove that semen is pure, because the Prophet () would never pray in an impure garment or in the garment which is smeared with the impurity.

HADEETH THIRTY-FOUR

Narrated Aboo Hurayrah : The Prophet (r) said, “When a man sits in between the four parts of a woman and did the sexual intercourse with her bath becomes compulsory.”

Reported Imam Muslim: “Even if there is no orgasm”.

EXPLANATION THE FIQH OF HADEETH 34:

Discussion on the words of the hadeeth:

A: The actual words of the hadeeth are: “When anyone sits between the four parts of her body and then makes effort.” What it implies is that a male sits within the thighs of the female and then cohabits. The Holy Prophet was an eloquent speaker and his expressions are very exquisite. He uses similes and metaphors for conveying the true sense of the meaning. This act of sexual intercourse could not rightly be expressed with the English word “mating”. He, therefore, used a metaphor to explain the real nature of the act.

B: The hadeeth that is reported by Imam Al-Bukhari in his Sahih Al-Bukhari: No. 290 is about the sexual intercourse between husband and wife. It has that ghusl becomes compulsory if husband and wife do the sexual intercourse. But it does not speak anything about seminal emission.

Similar hadeeth that is narrated by Imam Muslim in his Sahih Muslim: No. 682 is about sexual intercourse and the exception the seminal emission. It has that the ghusl becomes compulsory after the sexual intercourse even seminal emission has not taken place.

Aboo Hurayrah reported: The Apostle of Allaah (r) said: “When a man has sexual intercourse, bathing becomes obligatory (both for the male and the female), ...Even if there is no orgasm”.

C: Different opinions about the ghusl after sexual intercourse:

FIRST OPINION:

There are two different opinions of the scholars. Some say the ghusl will only be compulsory if the seminal emission takes place and...

others say that it will become compulsory if the two private parts touch each other, even if seminal emission does not take place.

Those who that the ghusl will only be compulsory if the seminal emission takes place, their evidence is the following hadith

Sa‘id al-Khudri narrated it from his father: ‘I went to Quba with the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) on Monday till we reached (the habitation) of Banu Salim. The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) stood at the door of ‘Itban and called him loudly. So he came out dragging his lower garment. Upon this the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said: We have made this man to make haste. ‘Itban said: Messenger of Allah, if a man parts with his wife suddenly without seminal emission, what is he required to do (with regard to bath)? The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said: It is with the seminal emission that bath becomes obligatory.

Abu Sa‘id al-Khudri reported: The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) happened to pass by (the house) of a man amongst the Ansar, and he sent for him. He came out and water was trickling down from his head. Upon this he (the Holy Prophet) said: Perhaps we put you to haste. He said: Yes. Messenger of Allah. He (the Holy Prophet) said: When you made haste or semen is not emitted, bathing is not obligatory for you, but ablution is binding. Ibn Bashshir has narrated it with a minor alteration.

Ubayy ibn Ka‘b reported: I asked the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) about a man who has sexual intercourse with his wife, but leaves her before orgasm. Upon this he (the Holy Prophet) said: He should wash the secretion of his wife, and then perform ablution and offer prayer.

Ubayy ibn Ka‘b narrated it from the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) that he said: If a person has sexual intercourse with his wife, but does not experience orgasm, he should wash his organ and perform an ablution.

Abu Sa‘id al-Khudri reported: The Apostle of Allah (may peace be upon him) observed: Bathing is obligatory in case of seminal emission.

Zaid b. Khalid al-Jubani reported that he asked Uthman b. ‘Affan: What is your opinion about the man who has sexual intercourse with his wife, but does not experience orgasm? Uthman said: He should perform ablution as he does for prayer, and wash his organ. ‘Uthman also said: I have heard it from the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him).

SECOND OPINION:

Some scholars say that the ghusl is compulsory whether seminal emission takes place or not. If the two private parts of husband and wife touch each other the ghusl is compulsory. They also say that the following hadith abrogates the previous one and makes it clear that the sexual intercourse makes a bath obligatory both for the man and the woman even if the seminal emission does not take place.

Abu Huraira reported: The Apostle of Allah (r) said: “When a man has sexual intercourse, bathing becomes obligatory (both for the male and the female). … Even if there is no orgasm.”

Abu Musa reported: There cropped up a difference of opinion between a group of Muhajirs (Emigrants) and a group of Ansar (Helpers) (and the point of dispute was) that the Ansar said: The bath (because of sexual intercourse) becomes obligatory only when the semen spurts out or ejaculates. But the Muhajirs said: When a man has sexual intercourse (with the woman), a bath becomes obligatory (no matter whether or not there is seminal emission or ejaculation). Abu Musa said: Well, I satisfy you on this (issue). He (Abu Musa, the narrator) said: I got up (and went) to ‘A‘isha and sought her permission and it was granted, and I said to her: 0 Mother, or Mother of the Faithful, I want to ask you about a matter on which I feel shy. She said: Don’t feel shy of asking me about a thing and which you can ask your mother, who gave you birth, for I am too your mother. Upon this I said: What makes a bath obligatory for a person? She replied: You have come across one well informed! The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said: When anyone sits amidst four parts (of the woman) and the circumcised parts touch each other a bath becomes obligatory.

‘A‘isha the wife of the Apostle of Allah (may peace be upon him) reported. A person asked the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) about one who has sexual intercourse with his wife and... parts away (without orgasm) whether bathing is obligatory for him. 'A'isha was sitting by him. The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said: 'I and she (the Mother of the Faithful) do it and then take a bath.'

Ubayy Ibn K'ab reported: The Prophet () made a concession in the early days of Islam on account of the paucity of the clothes that one should not take a bath if one has sexual intercourse (and has no seminal emission). But later on he commanded to take a bath in such a case and prohibited its omission.

This hadith abrogates the previous one and makes it clear that the sexual intercourse makes a bath obligatory both for the man and the woman even if the seminal emission does not take place.

CONCLUSION:
The ghusl is compulsory if the two private parts of the husband and wife, regardless to seminal emission.

D: Sacrifices of the Mothers of the Believers:

Hadrat 'A'isha was the most competent authority who could deliver final verdict on this matter on the basis of her personal experience. It is indeed one of the greatest sacrifices on the part of the Prophet () and his noble wives that they disclosed even the most private and personal affairs of their lives, and it is due to this sacrifice on their part that we have been able to learn these matters pertaining to purity and religious piety in the sphere of our private and personal life.

HADEETH THIRTY-FIVE

35-Narrated Aboo Ja'far Muhammad ibn 'Alee ibn Al-Husain ibn 'A'lee ibn Abee Taalib: While he and his father were with Jaabir bin Abdullaah, some people were with him and they asked him about taking a bath due to janabah. He replied, 'A Saa' of water is sufficient for you.' A man said: "A Saa' is insufficient for me" then Jaabir replied, "A Saa' was sufficient for one who had more hair than you and was better than you (meaning the Prophet (r). And then Jaabir (put on) his garment and led the prayer. Narrated Jaabir bin 'Abdullaah in another version: The Prophet (r) used to pour water three times on his head.

EXPLANATION THE FIQH OF HADEETH 35:

I. Aboo Jafar and his father were sitting in the gathering with Jaabir while someone asked Jaabir about the quantity of water required to have ghusl janabah. He replied that one Saa of water. Al-Hasan ibn Muhammad who was sitting in the gathering said that this amount of water will not be sufficient for him. Hence Jaabir replied by saying that whereas it was sufficient for the Prophet who had more and thick hair and was more careful about purification then anyone. This story is mentioned Sahih Muslim:

Jabir b. 'Abdullaah reported: When the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) took a bath because of sexual intercourse, he poured three handfuls of water upon his head. Hasan b. Muhammad said to him (the narrator): My hair is thick. Upon this Jabir observed. I said to him: O son of my brother, the hair of the Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) was thicker than your hair and these were more fine (than yours).

II. It is clear that ghusl is must after janabah.

III. A Saa of water is sufficient to have ghusl janabah.

IV. Saa is a measurement equal to four mudds. And mudd is also a standard of measure net which varies

Imam Ibn Hajr said that it is the opinion of the majority of scholars that the hadeeth of Abu Saeed is abrogated by the hadeeth of 'Aishah, Abu Hurayrah and Ubayy Ibn K'ab. Vol. 1, p. 143. See AL-FATHUR RABBAANEE: vol. 2, pp. 110-1, no. 420. The author also says that the above hadeeth abrogates the previous hadeeth. (p.112). According to Imam Al-Khattaabee those companions of the Prophet () who say that ghusl is compulsory only after the seminal emission and not without it, did not receive the hadeeth of Ubayy and Aishah and Abu Hurayrah. (p.113). The author further supported the opinion of the narrator in Sahih Muslim: Abu al-'A'la b. al-Shikhkhir said: The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) abrogated some of his commands by others, just as the Qur'an abrogates some part with the other, (Sahih Muslim: Book 3, Number 0675): Imam Ad-Daareemee in his book Sunan ad-Daareemee: Book of Purification: no. 759.

251 SAHIH AL-BUKHARI: Volume 1, Book 5, Number 256: SAHIH MUSLIM: Book 3, Number 0642.

according to the place and circumstances. But it is generally equal to one bushel. The mudd of Hijaaz contains (1 1/3) rotls (about ¾ seer) of water and that of Iraq contains 2 rotls about 1 seer of water. The sa of Hijaaz, therefore, contains about 3 seers of water.

V. The mentioned quantity of water is not the fix limit, one can use more if required without the intention of misusing it. It is only to explain that this quantity is the minimum, that could suffice one to have purification.

This tradition does not prescribe any quantity of water essential for the validity of ablution and bath. The Prophet sometimes performed ablution and took a bath with quantity of water and sometimes used more than this. A tradition recorded in Sahih Muslim says:

'A'isha reported: The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) washed himself with water from a vessel (measuring seven to eight seers, i.e. fifteen to sixteen pounds of water) because of sexual intercourse.

The conclusion is that one can use required quantity of water for ablution and for ghusl, without wasting it.

VI. One must not waste water unnecessarily. Pouring of water thrice would serve the purpose, and there is no need of using unnecessary water for bathing.

VII. One can ask Islamic question, the most the knowledgeable person in the gathering.

VIII. If someone argues about fiqh issue then one can answer strongly, mentioning the Sunnah of the Prophet ().

HADEETH THIRTY-SIX

36- Narrated 'Imran bin Husain Al-Khuza'i: Allah's Apostle saw a person sitting aloof and not praying with the people. He asked him, "O so and so! What prevented you from offering the prayer with the people?" He replied, "O Allah's Apostle! I am Junub and there is no water." The Prophet said, "Perform Tayammum\(^2\) with clean earth and that will be sufficient for you."

EXPLANATION THE FIQH OF HADEETH 36:

A: The person's name is Khallaad Ibn Raf'e Ibn Maalik, the brother of Rifa'ah Ibn Raf'e.\(^2\)

B: Brief discussion on the hadeeth:

A: Definition of the word: 'TAYAMMUM:

TAYAMMUM: It literally means intention; Islamically, it means wiping of hands and face with earth with the intention of purification, if one needs ablution or bath in the absence of water or if there is some other handicap.\(^2\) It is a substitute for ablution or bath as the case may be. The Qur'an, Sunnah, and consensus of the community establish its religious sanction. It is peculiar with the Muslim community. [SUNAN ABU DAWUD: VOL. 1, P. 82, FN. 141.]

Proof of its legitimacy

This is proven by the Qur'an, sunnah and ijma' (consensus).

The Qur'an says:

"if you are in a state of janabah bathe your whole body. But if you are ill, or on a journey, or one of you comes from privy or you have sexual intercourse with your wife, and you could not find water, than take clean sand or earth and rub your faces and hands therewith". [SOORATUL MAIDAH: CH. 5, NO. 6. AND SOORATUN NISAA: CH. 4, V. 43.]

The Sunnah:

Hudhaifa reported: The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said: We have been made to excel (other) people in three (things): Our rows have been made like the rows of the angels and the whole earth has been made a mosque for us, and its dust has been made a purifier for us in case water is not available. \(^{255}\) And he mentioned another characteristic too [SAHIH MUSLIM: Book 4, Number 1060].

Finally, there is a consensus that tayammum forms a legitimate part of the shari'ah, as it replaces ablution or ghusl under specific circumstances. [FIQHUS SUNNAH: Vol. 1, p. 63.]

252 SAHIH MUSLIM: Book 3, Number 0624.
It is mentioned in the other hadith that the Prophet () finished his Fajr Prayer and he saw a man who did not offer the prayer with him. The hadith shades the light on the Prophet’s () humbleness and good manner of teaching Islam to his companions. The Prophet () did not scold the man for not praying along with him before knowing the reason. This is his a good manner and love for his Ummah. The Prophet () asked him the reason because he did not know. As some people believe that he has the knowledge of unseen. The companion did not say O Messenger of Allah you have the complete knowledge of past, present, and future and so you know about all unseen things. All the Sahaabah believed that the Prophet () knew only those things, which were revealed to him by Allah. He never claimed to know every unseen thing.

EXPLANATION OF THE FIQH OF THE HADITH:

The sahaabi being the companion of the Prophet (), did not know the issue of Tayammum. Therefore, it is quite possible that other than sahabi may also do not know many issues of fiqh. It is not necessary that being an Imam, he knows everything and nothing can be missed by him.

D: If a person is in the state of janabah, and the water is not available then he or she should perform Tayammum.

E: If water is not available then clean earth is sufficient to perform Tayammum.

F: Tayammum is enough for both ghusl and for ablution.

G: The soil used for Tayammum can be sand, stone, gypsum, and so on. Says Allah, "Perform tayammum with pure soil," and all scholars of Arabic agree that "soil" is whatever covers the earth, dirt or otherwise.257

Narrated Abu Juhaim Al-Ansari: The Prophet came from the direction of Bir Jamal. A man met him and greeted him. But he did not return back the greeting till he went to a (mud) wall and smeared his hands and his face with its dust (performed Tayammum) and then returned back the greeting.258

Hudhaifa reported: The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said: We have been made to excel (other) people in three (things): Our rows have been made like the rows of the angels and the whole earth has been made a mosque for us, and its dust has been made a purifier for us in case water is not available. And he mentioned another characteristic too.259

H: What to do if neither water nor earth is available?

One can pray if neither water nor earth is available, based the following hadith:

Narrated 'Urwa's father: Aisha said, "I borrowed a necklace from Asma' and it was lost. So Allah's Apostle sent a man to search for it and he found it. Then the time of the prayer became due and there was no water. They prayed (without ablution) and informed Allah's Apostle about it, so the verse of Tayammum was revealed." Usaid bin Hudair said to 'Aisha, "May Allah reward you. By Allah, whenever anything happened which you did not like, Allah brought good for you and for the Muslims in that."260

CONCLUSION:

Whoever cannot get water or soil may pray in whatever state he is in, and he will not have to repeat his prayer later. The companions prayed while in a state of impurity, but the Prophet did not admonish them nor did he order them to repeat their prayers. Says an-Nawawi, "That is the strongest statement of proof (on this question)."

260 SAHIH AL-BUKHARI: Volume 1, Book 7, Number 332.
The prayer is said to be valid, if it is offered with Tayammum and then water was found. One should not repeat it again:

Ibn ‘Umar came from his land Al-Jurf and the time for the ‘Asr prayer became due while he was at Marbad-An-Na’am (sheep-fold), so he (performed Tayammum) and prayed there and then entered Medina when the sun was still high but he did not repeat that prayer.

This form of ablution is viewed as a blessing from Allah to the Muslims.

EXPLANATION THE FIQH OF HADEETH 37:

A: ‘Ammar knew that when water is not available to make ghusl or ablution then Tayammum is made. But he did not know the correct method of Tayammum. Therefore, he rolled himself on the sand.

B: It is very clear from the above hadith that whatever method is performed by the companion of the Prophet ( ), can be wrong or can be right, as ‘Ammar rolled on the ground to make Tayammum, instead of performing it as the Prophet () taught.

Therefore, one must not consider sahabah’s act as Sunnah, if there is clear evidence available. Many Muslims now days, reject authentic hadeeth, merely, because this sahabi or that sahabi has done so. Sometimes they reject authentic hadeeth merely because that Imam or this Imam has not done so. They say that our Imam cannot make mistake, what he is doing is also based on Quraan and hadeeth. My question to them is, if you say that my imam has done so based on Quraan and hadeeth, so where is the hadeeth, or is it declared authentic by experts of hadeeth? Then their reply is, “My mualana (imam), has the evidence.” Then after that I never see any evidence from him or his mualana. May Allaah all of us to follow the Quraan and hadeeth. Aameen.

C: If a person is doubtful of what he has done and not sure whether it is correct or wrong then he or she should discuss it with the knowledgeable person. As ‘Ammar did when he was not sure of what he has done.

D: The Prophet () taught ‘Ammar, how one can make Tayammum. He did not shout at him and did not insult him, rather than that he explained him in an easy way.

E: WHEN DID TAYAMMUM MADE LAWFUL?

Said ‘Aishah, “We went out with the Messenger of Allah on one of his journeys until we reached Baida’. At this place, one of my bracelets broke and fell somewhere. The Messenger of Allah and others began to look for it. There was no water at that place, nor did anyone have any water with him. The people went to Abu Bakr and said, “Do you see what your daughter has done?” Abu Bakr came to me, while the Prophet was sleeping on my thigh. He blamed me and said to me whatever Allah willed him to say. He also poked me in my side. I could not move, for the Prophet, upon whom be peace, was sleeping on my lap. He slept until the morning without any water available. Then, Allah revealed the verse of tayammum. As-Sayyid ibn Hudhain said, ‘That was not the first blessing from the family of Abu Bakr.’ The camel that I was on got up and we found the necklace underneath it."
F: How to perform tayammum

(1). One must have the intention (see the section on ablution).
(2). He mentions Allah's name,
(3). Strikes the soil with his hands,
(4). Blew away the dust from the hands,
(5). Wipes his face and his hands up to the wrist.

G: What is permissible to do after the Tayammum

After performing Tayammum, he is pure and may do any of the acts requiring prior purification, such as praying etc. He does not have to perform it during the time of prayer, and he may pray as many prayers as he wishes (unless he nullifies it), exactly as he can after performing the regular ablution.

Abu Dharr reported that the Prophet said, "The soil is a purifier for a Muslim, even if he does not find water for ten years. Then if he touches water, that is, to make ablution, and so on, it would be good." 264

H: What nullifies tayammum

In addition to the presence of water, everything that nullifies the ablution nullifies tayammum. If a person prays after performing tayammum and then finds water, he does not need to repeat his prayer even if there is time left to do so.

Abu Sa'eed al-Khudri said, "Two men went out on a journey. The time of prayer came and, as they had no water, they performed tayammum. Then they found some water during the time of the same prayer. One of them repeated his prayer with ablution and the other did not. When they saw the Messenger of Allah, they informed him of what had transpired. He said, 'They killed him, Allah will kill them. Do you not ask if you do not know? The rescue of the ignorant person is the question.' 266

D: If the water is cold enough to physically harm the user

This is only allowed on the condition that he can find no one to heat it, or is unable to use the public bathrooms.

'Amr ibn al-'Aas narrated that he was participating in an expedition. He had a wet dream during an extremely cold night, and was afraid that if he performed ghusl he would die. He prayed the morning prayer with his companions. He then went to the Messenger of Allah, upon whom be peace, to ask him about this. Muhammad said, "O 'Amr, did you pray with your companions while you needed a post-nocturnal bath?" 'Amr mentioned the verse, "Do not kill yourselves, Allah is merciful to you" to the Prophet. The Prophet just laughed and didn't say anything. 267

E: When water is nearby, but one does not want to fetch it due to fear

If one fears for his life, family, wealth, (for example, if an enemy is nearby--beast or human--or one is a prisoner, and so on), one may perform tayammum. This is also allowed if there is water but one lacks the proper means to get it, or if one fears some accusation against him if he gets it.

F: Wiping Over Casts, Wrappers and Similar Items

It is allowable to wipe over any wrapper or diseased or injured bodily part. There are many hadith on this point, and although they are all weak, their many chains strengthen each other, making them valid to talk about. One hadith, that of Jabir (quoted earlier), relates a story about a man who was on a journey and suffered an injury. While he slept, he had a wet dream, after which he asked his companions if he could perform tayammum. They said he could not, so he made ghusl and died because of it. When that was mentioned to the Prophet, he said "They killed him, may Allah kill them. Do you not ask about what you do not know? In fact, it is obligatory to wipe over such casts or wrappers in ablution or ghusl instead of washing the injured parts. This must be done even if he has to heat the water. But, if he believes that this would harm the diseased or injured part, or that his condition may worsen, or that his pain would increase, he may wipe the injured part with water. If he fears that this would also be harmful, he should wrap it and then gently wipe over it. It is not necessary for him to be in a state of purity while applying the cast or wrapper to be wiped. There is also no time limit for such wipings, for he can do so as long as his condition lasts. Removing the wrapper or cast nullifies the wiping, as does the final cure.

HADEETH THIRTY-NINE:

39-Narrated Jaabir bin ‘Abdullaah: The Prophet (r) said, “I have been given five things which were not given to any one else before me.
1. Allaah made me victorious by awe, (by His frightening my enemies) for a distance of one month’s journey.
2. The earth has been made for me (and for my followers) a place for praying and a thing to purify (perform Tayammum), therefore anyone of my followers can pray wherever the time of a prayer is due.
3. The booty has been made Halaal (lawful) for me yet it was not lawful for anyone else before me.
4. I have been given the right of intercession (on the Day of Resurrection).
5. Every Prophet used to be sent to his nation only but I have been sent to all mankind.268

EXPLANATION THE FIQH OF HADEETH 36:
The above is describing the blessings of Allaah which He has bestowed upon Prophet and his Ummah. One of these blessings is that Allaah has made the earth pure, so that if any one wants to make Tayammum when water is not available and one can offer prayer anywhere on the earth when its time takes place.

There is an authentic hadeeth narrated in Abu Dawud where the Prophet said that toilet and graveyard is not the place for the prayer.

Sa'eed reported the Prophet () said: “The whole earth is a place of prayer except public baths and graveyards”269

ISTIHAAADAH270

268 SAHIH AL BUKHARI: vol. 1, pp. 199-200, no. 331.
269 SUNAN ABU DAWUD: VOL. 1, NO. 492. It is authenticated by Al-Albaanee in his Sahih Sunan Abee Daawood: vol. 1, no. 463.
270 A woman who suffers from non-stopping bleeding during her menses, such bleeding is known as ‘ISTIHAAADAH’. It is a blood that comes from the womb of the woman. In another hadeeth the Prophet () has said that this bleeding is due to Satan, who hits with his leg into the vein in the private part of the woman.[ AL-MUSTADRAK OF IMAM AL-HAAKIM: 1/175. SUNAN AD-DARAQUTNEE: 1/ 216-217. SUNAN AL-BAIHAQEE: 1/357.]
39- Narrated 'Aaisha : Faatima bint Abee Hubaish asked the Prophet (r), “I got persistent bleeding (in between the periods) and do not become clean. Shall I give up prayer?” He replied, “No, this is from a blood vessel. Give up your prayers only for the days on which you usually get the menses and then take a bath and offer your prayers.”

Another version has that the Prophet () said: “…So when the real menses begins give up your prayers and when it (the period) has finished wash the blood off your body (take a bath) and offer your prayers.”

EXPLANATION THE FIQH OF HADEETH 39:

A: Faatima bint Abee Hubaish was suffering from non-stopping bleeding. Such bleeding is known as ‘ISTIHAADAH’.

B: There are four kinds of women suffering from ‘ISTIHAADAH’. She was one of them. She knew number of days that she would have menses. Therefore, the Prophet () asked her to make an account of her normal days of menses. Once her normal days are over then she should consider other bleeding days as days of ‘ISTIHAADAH’.

C: She was not aware of this kind of bleeding hence she asked the Prophet () about it.

D: The Prophet () said that such bleeding is from a vessel and it is not menses. Therefore, she should give up her prayers during her menses. After finishing her menses, she should take bath and offer her prayers.

273 AL-'ELAAM BE FAWAA ED 'UMDATIL AHKAAM: VOL. 2, P. 183.

274 SUNAN ABU DAWUD: NO. 286. Ash- Shaikh Al-Albaanee has declared it authentic in SAHIH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD: NO. 263.
K. Although the Prophet () did not ask her to make ghusl after her normal menses, it does not mean that ghusl is not required. There are many authentic ahaadeeth in which the Prophet () has ordered to make ghusl as soon as the menses is over.

L: It is prohibited to offer prayers during menses. It is obligatory to offer prayers during 'ISTIHADAH'. It is prohibited to give up the prayers during 'ISTIHAADAH'.

M: The menses is impure, and ghusl is must once it is over.

N: During menses women should not offer prayers and should not fast.

O: After the menses the women should fast the missed days due to bleeding., but she is not required to make up her missed prayers.

P: A woman can sit for 'Etikaaf even if she is in the state of Istihaadah:

Narrated 'Aisha: Once one of the wives of the Prophet did Itikaf along with him and she was getting bleeding in between her periods. She used to see the blood (from her private parts) and she would perhaps put a dish under her for the blood. (The sub-narrator 'Ikrima added, 'Aisha once saw the liquid of safflower and said, "It looks like what so and so used to have.")

Q: She can have sexual intercourse with her husband
She may have intercourse with her husband even while the blood is flowing, according to most scholars, because there is no evidence to the contrary. Said Ibn 'Abbas, "If she can pray, her husband can have intercourse with her." Al-Bukhari says that if she is pure enough for prayer, she certainly must be pure enough for intercourse.

Abu Dawud and al-Baihaqi related that 'Akramah bint Hamnah had a prolonged flow of blood and that her husband had intercourse with her. An-Nawawi holds its chain to be hussan.

40-Narrated 'Aa'isha, the wife of the Prophet (r): Um Habeeba got bleeding in between the periods for seven years. She asked Allah's Messenger (r) about it. He ordered her to take a bath (after the termination of actual periods) and added that it was (from) a blood vessel. But she used to take a bath for every prayer (without being ordered by the Prophet (r)).

EXPLANATION FIQH OF HADEETH 40:

A: Um Habeeba was suffering from Istihadah for seven years, so she asked the Prophet () about its Islamic ruling. The Prophet () asked her to make ghusl, but she used to make the ghusl for every prayer.

B: In the hadeeth above it is mentioned that she used to wash her before every fard (obligatory) prayer. The scholars say that the ghusl is required only for the first time when a woman becomes pure from her menses. The Prophet () did not ask Um Habeeba to make ghusl for every prayer. It was something, which she was doing from herself.

C: The ghusl is must after menses.

D: She is to be considered a pure person, and she may pray, fast, remain in the mosque, recite the Qur'aan, touch a copy of the Qur'aan, and so on.

E: One can offer prayer even if it is bleeding. As did 'Umar. He offered his prayer in the state of injury and his wound was bleeding.

Ya'ya related to me from Hisham ibn Urwa from his father that al-Miswar ibn Makhrama told him that he had visited Umar ibn al-

F: She does not have to perform ghusl for every prayer, except for the one time when her period or blood flow has ended.

G: She must make ablution for every prayer, menstruating women.

Said the Prophet, "Make ablution for every prayer." According to Malik, this is only preferred and not obligatory (unless she nullifies her ablution, of course).

H: Keeping the blood in check, menstruating women.

She is to wash her vagina before she makes ablution, and she should wear something which soaks up the blood. It is preferred for her to do what she can to keep the blood in check.

HADEETH FORTY-ONE

41-301 عن عائشة: قالتي أُجَلِّسْتُ أُنْسَىَّ اللَّهُ وَرَأىَ أَنَّ قَلْبِي حَثَّ وَكَانَ كَأَنَّىْفَتَرَ قَبَْسٍ وَاَنَا حَائِضٌ وَكَانَ يُخْرِجُ رَأْسَيْهِ إِلَى وَهْوُ مُتَعَفِّفُ فَمَخَّصَتْ وَاَنَا حَائِضٌ.

41-Narrated ‘Aaisha: The Prophet (r) and I used to take a bath from a single pot while we were Junub. During the menses, he used to order me to put on an Izaar (dress worn below the waist) and use to fondle me. While in I’tikaaf, he used to bring his head near me and I would wash it while I used to be in my periods (menses).

EXPLANATION THE FIQH OF HADEETH 41:

What can a spouse do in the state of janabah?

A: It is permissible for the spouse to take bath together in the same bathroom, and from one vessel.

B: They cannot have sexual intercourse during the menses:

C: It is prohibited to have sexual intercourse during the menses but one can do so during ‘ISTIHAADAH’.

Allaah has said in the Qur’aan: “They ask you (O Muhammad) concerning menstruation. Say it is a filthy (thing), so keep away from women during menses and go not in unto them until they have been purified (from menses and washed their bodies). And they have purified themselves, then go in unto them as Allaah has ordained for you (go in unto them in any manner as long as it is in their vagina). Truly, Allah loves those who repent to Him and loves those who purify themselves.” Al-Baqarah: 2: 222.

D: They can have sexual relation with one another during menses, except sexual intercourse, because it is prohibited in Islam.

(1): Narrated 'Abdur-Rahman bin Al-Aswad: (on the authority of his father) ‘Aisha said: "Whenever Allah's Apostle wanted to fondle anyone of us during her periods (menses), he used to order her to put on an Izar and start fondling her." ‘Aisha added, "None of you could control his sexual desires as the Prophet could."

(2): Thabit narrated it from Anas: Among the Jews, when a woman menstruated, they did not dine with her, nor did they live with them in their houses; so the Companions of the Apostle (may peace be upon him) asked The Apostle (may peace be upon him), and Allah, the Exalted revealed: "And they ask you about menstruation; say it is a pollution, so keep away from woman during menstruation" to the end (Qur’an, ii. 222). The Messenger of Allah (may peace be upon him) said: Do everything except intercourse, …

(3): Narrated Zainab bint Abi Salama: Um-Salama said, "I got my menses while I was lying with the Prophet under a woolen sheet. So I slipped away, took the clothes for menses and put them on.

Allah’s Apostle said, ‘Have you got your menses?’ I replied, ‘Yes.’ Then he called me and took me under the woolen sheet.” Um Salama further said, “The Prophet used to kiss me while he was fasting. The Prophet and I used to take the bath of Janaba from a single pot.”

E: It is recommended that a woman to wear Izaar when a spouse want to have sexual relationship.

F: It is better to have precautions to avoid falling into illegal issues.

G: It is not allowed for the woman to enter the mosque during her menses without any serious reason.

H: The spouse can help one another in any social activities. A woman can forward her service to her husband even during her menses.

Narrated ‘Urwa: A person asked me, “Can a woman in menses serve me? And can a Junub woman come close to me?” I replied, “All this is easy for me. All of them can serve me, and there is no harm for any other person to do the same. ‘Aisha told me that she used to comb the hair of Allah’s Apostle while she was in her menses, and he was in Itikaf (in the mosque). He would bring his head near her in her room and she would comb his hair, while she used to be in her menses.”

I. If a person takes out his head from the mosque during ‘Etikaaf, is not considered out of ‘Etikaaf. He is still in ‘Etikaaf.

J: A person during his ‘Etikaaf can wash his hair and comb his hair.

EXPLANATION OF 'UMDATUL-AHKAAM

304 SAHIH MUSLIM: vol. 1, p.191, fn. 551.

305 AL-'ELAAM BE FAWAA ED 'UMDATIL AHKAAM: VOL. 2, P. 206.

EXPLANATION THE FIQH OF HADEETH 43:

A: Mu'aadhah was having doubt about the issue that Prayers and fasting both are pillars of Islam, but how come a woman makes up her missing fasting due to her menses, and not making up the missing prayers due to her menses. Therefore, she asked 'Aishah about why it is so. 'Aishah called her harooriyah because of Al-Khawaarij, because they believe that a woman should make up her missed prayers due to menses.

B: One may ask why is it so. Allaah does not impose unbearable burden upon people. The fasts of Ramadhaan are observed once during the year, and it is quite easy to compensate the abandoned fasts (from five to ten) during the whole year. But the completion of abandoned prayers which must range between twenty-two and fifty every month, is quite difficult. Islam has not put this burden upon women and has granted them this concession.

C: Who are Haroorien?

It should also be borne in mind that it was one of the characteristics of the Khawaarij that they put themselves to unnecessary hardships in matters of religion and imposed upon themselves such duties as Islam never ordained. Psychological studies have made it clear that such an attitude towards religion is born out of self-conceitedness and pride in one's piety. True religion teaches humility and modesty.

D: A woman will make up her missing fasts and will not make up her missing prayers due to menses.

E: One should strongly reject if someone is arguing about the hadeeth, for no reason. 'Aishah thought that Mu'aadhah is behaving like Haroorien, therefore, she rejected her in that manner.

F: Based on the above hadeeth one can delay or leave out any Islamic issue if it is beyond the ability to fulfill. One may find difficulty or almost impossible to make up missed prayers due to menses, hence Islam has totally dropped it.

GENERAL ISSUES OF MENSES, ISTIHAADAH, AND POST-CHILDBIRTH BLEEDING

MENSTRUATION

Menstruation:

In Arabic, the word for menstruation (haidh) literally means "running." Here it refers to the discharge of blood during a woman's state of health, not from giving birth or breaking the hymen.

Most scholars say that its time begins at the age of nine. If blood is seen before that age, it is not menstrual blood, but is considered to be putrid blood. As there is no evidence about when a woman stops menstruating, if an elderly lady finds blood flowing it is considered menstrual blood.

There is no stated minimum or maximum length of time for the menses. All statements dealing with this topic have no sound backing. If a woman has a customary length of time for her menses, she should according to it. Umm Salamah asked the...
Prophet about a woman with a prolonged flow of blood. He said, "She should look for the number of days and nights that she usually has her menses and the time of the month during which it occurs. Then she should leave the prayer (during those days, and then afterwards) perform ghusl, tie something around her vagina and pray." (Related by "the five," except for at-Tirmidhi.) If she has no customary period to go by, then she can try to distinguish between the different types of blood. This practice is based on the previously quoted hadith of Fatimah bint Abu Hubaish, which states that menstrual blood is distinguishable and well-known to women. All scholars agree that there is no minimum or maximum time limit between two menstrual periods. Some say that the latter period is fifteen days, while others say it is three days. [FIQHUS-SUNAH: VOL. 1, P. 70.]

WOMEN WITH PROLONGED FLOWS OF BLOOD

Islam defines such an occurrence as the flowing of blood outside of the regular time. This usually happens in three specific cases.

In the first case, the woman knows that her flow of menstrual blood is lasting longer than usual. In such a case, she will act according to her customary period, and the remainder will be considered days of prolonged blood flows. This is based on the hadith of Umm Salamah, in which she asked the Messenger of Allah, upon whom be peace, about this condition. He said, "She should wait for the days and nights of her normal period and figure them out of the month, and she should leave the prayer during those days. (Afterwards) she should perform ghusl, tighten something around her vagina and then pray." [SAHIH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD: NO. 244.]

In the second case, a woman does not know her period well enough to determine if she is experiencing menstrual bleeding or a prolonged flow of blood. In that case, her menstruation is considered to be six or seven days, which is the most common among women. Said Jamnah bint Jahsh, "I had a very strong prolonged flow of blood. I went to the Prophet to ask him about it. When I asked him if I had to stop praying and fasting, he said 'Tie around a cloth, and it will stop.' I said, 'It is greater than that.' He said, 'Curb it.' I said, 'It flows greatly.' He then said, 'You may do one of two things: either one will suffice. Which one you are able to do you know best. This is a strike from Satan. Be on your period for six or seven days, which Allah knows, and then perform ghusl until you see that you are clean. Pray for fourteen nights or thirteen nights and days and fast, and that will be sufficient for you. Do that every month as the other women become pure and menstruate. If you can, you may delay the noon prayer and hasten the afternoon prayer. Perform ghusl and pray the noon and afternoon prayers together. Then delay the sunset and hasten the night prayers and pray them together. Perform ghusl for the morning prayer and pray it. This is how you may pray and fast if you have the ability to do so..." And he said, "That is the more loved way to me." [SAHIH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD: NO. 267.]

In the third case, a woman has a regular period, but she is able to distinguish the blood. She should, therefore, behave according to the type of blood she sees. Fatimah bint Abu Hubaish had a prolonged flow of blood, and the Prophet told her, "If it is menstrual blood, it is dark and recognizable. If you have that, abstain from the prayer. If it is other than that, make ablution and pray, for it is a vein." [SAHIH SUNAN ABEE DAAWOOD: NO. 263.]

HOW ONE CAN DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN MENSES AND ISTIHAADAH:

One can differentiate between menses and other bleeding by their colours:

The menses can be recognized by its colour, because its colour is different then other bleeding.

1. Dark.
2. Red. It is the original colour of blood.
3. Yellow. It is a liquid, like pus.
4. A muddy color. It is an intermediate colour between black and white, like dirt.

Imam AL-Bukhari reported: Chapter (27). Yellowish discharge which looks like yellowish pus during the days between the periods.

Hadeeth: 323:

Narrated Um 'Atiyah: We never considered yellowish discharge as a thing of importance (as menses). [SAHIH AL-BUKHARI: VOL. 1, P. 194, HADEETH 323.]
EXPLANATION OF ‘UMDATUL-AHKAM

It is mentioned in SAHIH AL-BUKHARI: Chapter: (21). The beginning and the ending of menstrual periods. Some women used to send the pads of cotton with traces of yellowish discharge to ‘Aisha or her verdict to know whether they had become clean from menses or not. And ‘Aisha would say, “Do not hurry till you see the cotton pad is white (meaning the perfect disappearance of menses).” The daughter of Zayd bin Thabit was told that some women used to ask for candles at midnight to see whether the menses had stopped or not. On that the daughter of Zayd said that the ladies (wives of the Prophet’s companions) had never done so, and she blamed them (the former women). SAHIH AL-BUKHARI: VOL. 1, P. 190.

POST-BIRTH BLEEDING

Such bleeding occurs after the birth of a child, regardless if the child survived the birth or not. This type of bleeding has no minimum duration, for it could stop right after the birth, or there could even be no blood. Therefore, her confinement would end and she would be obliged to fast, pray, and so on. The maximum duration is forty days.

Said Umm Salamah, "During the lifetime of the Prophet, the post-childbirth woman would be in confinement for forty days." After recording the hadith, at-Tirmidhi states, "The knowledgeable companions, the following generation and those that came later agree that a woman experiencing post-childbirth bleeding had to stop praying for forty days unless her blood stopped. If her bleeding stops before that time, she is to make ghusl and start praying. If she sees blood after forty days, most scholars say that she is not to stop praying (because it is Istihaadah)."

Forbidden Acts for Women Experiencing Menstruation and Post-Childbirth Bleeding

All acts forbidden for a person who has not yet cleansed himself from sex or a wet dream are prohibited to women in these two conditions, as these are considered major impurities. But, there are also two further prohibitions:

(1): They cannot fast, menstruating women

(2): She cannot engage in sexual intercourse

In his comments on the subject, an-Nawawi states, "If a Muslim believes it is permissible to have intercourse with his menstruating wife, he becomes an unbelieving apostate. If he does it, not thinking that it is permissible, but out of forgetfulness or not knowing that it is forbidden or not knowing that his wife was menstruating, then there is no sin or expiation upon him. If he does it on purpose, knowing that it is forbidden, he has committed a grave sin and must repent. There are two opinions on this: the more correct one is that there is to be expiation." He further says, "All scholars say that one may touch anything above the navel or below the knees. Most scholars say that it is permissible to touch what is between the navel and the knees, but not the vagina or anus." An-Nawawi concludes that it is permitted but hated, as that is the strongest position from the evidence.

HOW TO WASH THE MENSES

1. WASHING OUT THE MENSTRUAL BLOOD:

Narrated Asma’ bint Abi Bakr: A woman asked Allah’s Apostle, “O Allah’s Apostle! What should we do, if the blood of menses falls on our clothes?” Allah’s Apostle replied, “If the blood of menses falls on the garment of anyone of you, she must take hold of the blood spot, rub it, and wash it with water and then pray in (with it).”

Narrated ‘Aisha: Whenever anyone of us got her menses, she, on becoming clean, used to make ghusl and start praying. If she sees blood after forty days, most scholars say that she is not to stop praying (because it is Istihaadah)."

2. PUTTING PERFUME BY WOMEN AT THE TIME OF TAKING A BATH AFTER FINISHING FROM THE MENSES:

Narrated Um-'Atiya: We were allowed very light perfumes at the time of taking a bath after menses.\(^{312}\)

Narrated 'Aisha: A woman asked the Prophet about the bath, which is, take after finishing from the menses. The Prophet told her what to do and said, "Purify yourself with a piece of cloth scented with musk." The woman asked, "How shall I purify myself with it?" He said, "Subhan Allah! Purify yourself (with it)." I pulled her to myself and said, "Rub the place soiled with blood with it."\(^{313}\)

Narrated 'Aisha: An Ansari woman asked the Prophet how to take a bath after finishing from the menses. He replied, "Take a piece a cloth perfumed with musk and clean the private parts with it thrice." The Prophet felt shy and turned his face. So pulled her to me and told her what the Prophet meant.\(^{314}\)
